P96/51

Just for You.

A special collection of popular U.S. Government publications.

Available from the Superintendent of Documents,
U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.

GP3.28:

Space Exploration

Launch into the exciting realm of Quasars, Black Holes, and Saturn's rings with NASA's colorful and highly informative space publications. See page 45.

NEWARK PUBLIC LIBRARY
FEB 25 1981
U. S. GOVT. PUBS.
DEPOSITORY 376

Just For You

As the title of this catalog indicates, we at the office of the Superintendent of Documents have assembled a collection of very special publications for your information and enjoyment. We've tried to make the selection broad enough to be truly representative of the thousands of useful titles in the Government inventory.

Each and every page is filled with the best we have to offer. In addition to the newest items in our inventory, we have focused on past favorites as well. Homeowners will be pleased with the wide variety of books on home maintenance, energy conservation, and gardening; space enthusiasts will delight at the many beautiful charts and books on space exploration; and homemakers will find a well-rounded selection of books on food and nutrition, child care, and consumerism. Whatever your interest is, these pages contain something for everyone—and at affordable prices.

Ordering couldn't be easier; just fill out the order blank in the back of the catalog. This potpourri of delightful books is meant to be used over and over again—whenever you need a gift or just want something to read for yourself.

We hope that somewhere within its pages you'll find some books that are just for you.

C. A. LaBarre

Assistant Public Printer
(Superintendent of Documents)

How to use this catalog

This special catalog contains synopses of over 450 popular Government publications. We have organized them into subject categories to make the catalog easier to use. While many publications were found to be appropriate for more than one category, we could list each item only once. So, to make sure you haven't missed anything, it is best to look at all related categories.

You will notice that many titles are preceded by an asterisk (*). This identifies a publication that is issued annually or more frequently. If a new edition has been published when you order, and the price of the new edition is greater than for the edition listed in this catalog, we will either return your order with the new price noted or ship the new edition and bill you for the increase, depending on the amount of the increase.

Supplies of all publications in this catalog are limited. Prices shown were those effective November 1, 1980. Prices are subject to change without notice. If you are ordering from this catalog more than six months after the date shown above, we suggest you inquire first to check both the price and the availability of the items desired. We can be reached between the hours of 8:00 AM and 4:30 PM (EST) at (202) 783-3238. Our mailing address is Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20401.

Our other services

There are over 25,000 distinct titles available from the Superintendent of Documents. We offer a variety of free and paid services designed to help you use this valuable collection of Government information. The paid services, which can be ordered on the order forms on pages 61-64, include:

The Monthly Catalog of US Government Publications, which lists all publications of the Government issued during each month, whether available for sale or not. Annual subscriptions are available for $65.00 to domestic addresses and $81.25 to foreign addresses. Single copies are priced at $6.00 domestic and $7.50 foreign. The symbol is (MC).

The GPO Sales Publications Reference File, a subscription that catalogs all publications currently offered for sale by the Superintendent of Documents. It is available only in 48X microfiche. The service consists of bimonthly mailings of the complete master file (approximately 170 fiche) and monthly mailings of a single fiche containing new publications. Annual subscriptions are available for $70.00 to domestic addresses and $87.50 to foreign addresses. A single copy is $12.00 domestic and $15.00 foreign. The symbol is (PRF).

The free services, which should be requested in writing from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20401, include:

Selected U.S. Government Publications, a 16-page catalog issued 11 times a year. Each issue contains about 170 annotated citations of new or popular publications. The service consists of a continuing subscription.

Government Periodicals and Subscription Services, a partially annotated list of Government subscriptions sold by this Office. We'll send the latest quarterly revision upon request.

The Consumer's Guide to Federal Publications, a more complete presentation of our many services (including deposit accounts, bookstores, subject bibliographies, and depository libraries).

Contents

Business & Industry/ 29
Careers/ 44
Children & Families/ 41
Consumerism/ 4
Energy Conservation/ 18
Environment & Weather/ 16
Gardening & Landscaping/ 13
Good Eating & Good Nutrition/ 39
Health & Physical Fitness/ 36
Hobbies & Leisure Activities/ 8
Housing & Money Management/ 5
International Topics/ 34
Military & Aviation/ 30
Miscellaneous/ 50
National Topics/ 19
Our Government & Our History/ 22
Periodicals/ 52
Space Exploration/ 45
Vacation & Recreation/ 34

Consumerism

Credit Shopping Guide. This pocket-size booklet explains finance charges and the consumer's rights under the Truth in Lending Act. Different types of borrowing are compared, and tables are provided which help to determine monthly payments and total finance charges for interest rates between 8 and 20 percent. 1979. 36 p.
S/N 018-000-00237-0 $1.00

Give Yourself Credit (Guide to Consumer Credit Laws). In recent years Congress has passed several much needed consumer credit laws dealing with loans, car leasing, billing errors, credit cards, and investigative credit reports. Give Yourself Credit deals with these issues in a question-and-answer format and is a simple and quick reference to the consumer credit laws passed to date. 1977. 130 p.
S/N 052-071-00524-2 $2.10

Helping Families Manage Their Finances. Prepared as a guide for extension workers, teachers, social welfare personnel, and others concerned with helping families make wise use of their money. 1962, rev 1968. 52 p. il.
S/N 001-000-00982-6 $1.00

A Guide to Budgeting for the Family. This handy booklet outlines the simple steps to be followed in planning and implementing a family budget. Rev 1976. 14 p.
S/N 001-000-03514-2 $1.25

Consumers All: 1965 Yearbook of Agriculture. Contains useful information about topics of vital interest to all consumers: buying, making, or using food, clothing, household furnishings, and equipment; managing money; caring for yards, gardens, and houses; staying healthy; and much more. 1965. 512 p. il.
S/N 001-000-00112-4 Cloth, $6.40

Shopper's Guide: 1974 Yearbook of Agriculture. One of the most informative guides to smart shopping ever published under one cover. It consists of articles ranging in topic from shopping for your home to buying plants to saving money on your vacations. You will learn about decorating your bathroom, evaluating furniture, finding the best tools and materials for jobs around the home, automobile and appliance repairs, buying bicycles, backpacking equipment and hunting and fishing gear, shopping for the best credit terms, and much more. This excellent reference book teaches the basic concepts behind being a "smart shopper." Unlike prices, these concepts rarely change. 1974. 358 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03300-0 $5.70

Importing a Car. Explains import requirements for clearing your car or vehicle through US Customs. 1978. 12 p. il.
S/N 048-002-00068-4 $1.00

Self Service: Gas Up 'N Go? Since the advent of self-service gas stations, Americans are getting out of their cars to pump their own gas in ever increasing numbers. This booklet asks an important question of everyone participating in this trend: "Who's checking under the hood now that the attendant isn't?" If your answer is "No one," it's very possible that the money you're saving by pumping your own gas could be lost in repairs caused by negligence. This booklet tells you which maintenance checks should be made at each fill-up and how to make them. It is written so that those with no mechanical experience can check fluid levels, belt and hose condition, tire wear, and so on. 1977. 7 p. il.
S/N 008-070-00407-1 $1.00

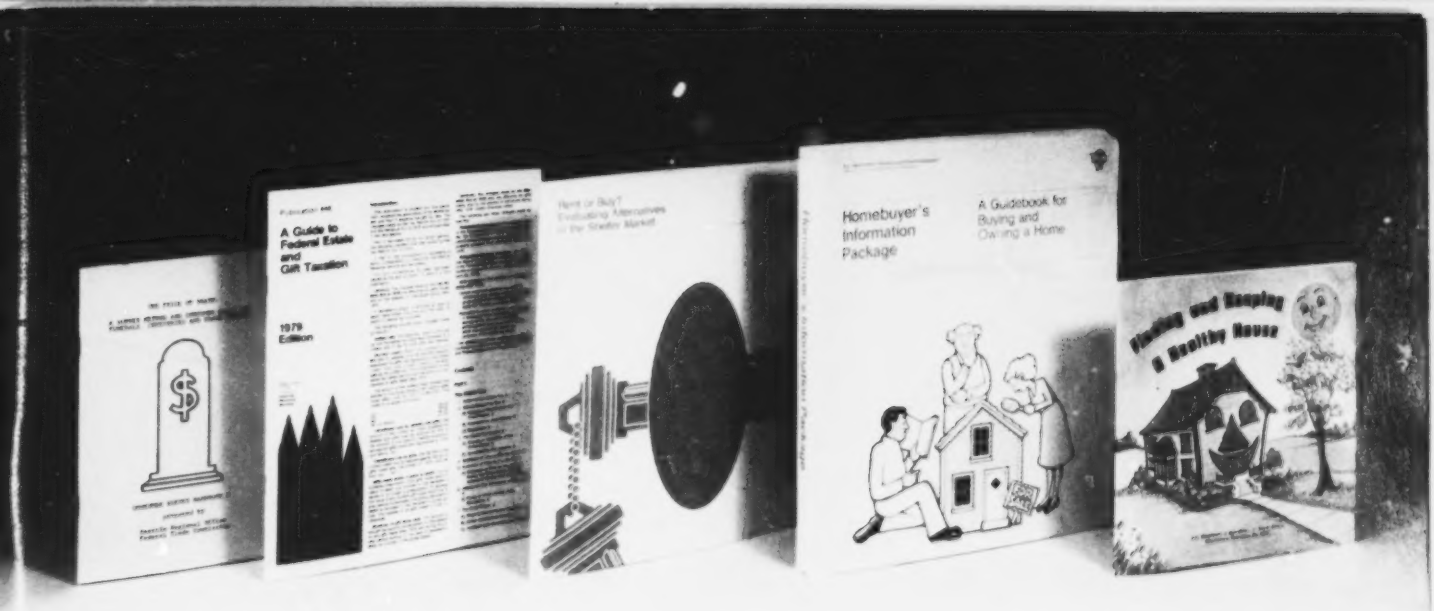
How to Buy Surplus Personal Property from the Department of Defense. Sales of military surplus are conducted whenever there is sufficient material to interest



A Guide to Federal Estate and Gift Taxation
1979 Edition
Homebuyer's Information Package
A Guidebook for Buying and Owning a Home Finding and Keeping a Healthy House prospective buyers. These sales, which are open to the public, offer a wide variety of serviceable items including agricultural machinery, hand tools, furniture, lighting fixtures, ships, vehicles, office equipment, medical equipment, and much, much more. This pamphlet tells you how to be notified of such sales and how to bid for purchase. 1978. 23 p.

S/N 008-007-02939-8 $1.00

You, the Law and Retirement. This handy booklet contains practical advice for anyone contemplating retirement. It discusses making a will, setting up trust funds, designating power of attorney, when to see a laywer, and more. 1965, rep 1975. 37 p. il.
S/N 017-062-00003-4 $1.20

The Price of Death: A Survey Method and Consumer Guide for Funerals, Cemeteries, and Grave Markers. This handbook contains information that will enable consumer groups to survey and compare funeral, cemetery, and grave marker prices in their communities. Sample questionnaires, compilation sheets, and survey forms are provided. Other sections describe the services and merchandise available to funeral/cemetery buyers. 1975. 35 p.
S/N 018-000-00185-3 $1.05

A Guide to Federal Estate and Gift Taxation. If you are the beneficiary of an estate or the recipient of a gift of property, you are liable for the payment of Federal tax on the estate or on the value of the gift. The Guide is divided into four parts. Part 1 explains the nature of the estate tax and discusses the application of the estate tax law to the estates of individuals who died after 1976. Part 2 explains the application of the tax law to gifts made after 1976 and provides instructions for filing the gift tax return. Part 3 discusses the tax on generation-skipping transfers, which involve splitting the benefits of a trust between two or more generations. Part 4 explains how to request the factors, computations, and rulings that are sometimes necessary to complete a tax return. 1979. 56 p.
S/N 048-004-01592-7 $1.90

Housing and Money Management

Rent or Buy? Evaluating Alternatives in the Shelter Market. Tells how to compare current and long-range costs of renting vs buying a home. 1979. 21 p.
S/N 029-001-02309-0 $1.75

Finding and Keeping a Healthy House. This colorful booklet helps you select a house that is free from decay and insect damage and offers practical tips for keeping it that way. 1974. 22 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03263-1 $1.25

Homebuyer's Information Package. Are you thinking of buying a home? If so, this publication can help you to make a practical, informed decision. It contains straightforward advice on whether or not to buy, how to look for a house, understanding purchase contracts, financing a house, making settlement, money management after you move in, and maintaining the house. At the end of each colorfully indexed section are useful worksheets, sample documents, and detailed information on just about every aspect of buying a home. This easy-to-use, looseleaf guidebook is the perfect companion to take on a househunting excursion. It can guide, inform, direct, and help you through the multitude of decisions that must be made before, during, and after buying a home. 1979. 196 p. il.
S/N 023-000-00508-5 $4.95

House Construction—How To Reduce Costs. This booklet offers advice on choosing the design and location for your new house and discusses options with regard to interior design, materials selection, construction techniques, and utilities installation. Rev 1977. 14 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03729-3 $1.25

How To Build a House, Using Self-Help Housing Techniques. A handy, illustrated manual in English and Spanish that describes the basic things you need to know if you're going to build a home of your own or renovate your present home. Describes the fundamentals of laying out the entire house, constructing and finishing the walls, and installing different kinds of floors and roofs. Includes illustrated sections on windows and doors, plumbing, water supply and sewage systems, and electrical systems. 1974. 50 p. il.
S/N 023-000-00276-1 $1.40

Wood-Frame House Construction. This useful book presents established methods and principles for constructing a wood-frame house. Drawings and easily understood instructions guide one through the entire process of building a house. Rev 1975. 223 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03528-2 $4.25

Designs for Low-Cost Wood Homes. Presents eleven house designs of varying style and size, which can be built for approximately one-half of normal construction costs. Reviews size and layout for each home and provides information on obtaining building plans. 1969, rep 1978. 28 p. il.
S/N 001-001-00019-1 $1.75

Selecting and Financing a Home. This booklet can help to answer some of the questions prospective homebuyers may have about the biggest investment decision they will ever make. 1980. 24 p.
S/N 001-000-04149-5 $1.50

Settlement Costs. If you're planning to buy a house, you'll have to "settle" or "close" the deal and pay a variety of fees and charges in order to obtain your title and mortgage. This booklet outlines what you should know before you make final settlement. It itemizes and explains every point of the standard form used to record actual settlement charges to buyers and sellers in mortgage transactions, including an explanation of the broker's commission, prepaid insurance premiums, title charges and title insurance, attorney and notary fees, and adjustments of certain costs. 1975, rep 1978. 40 p.
S/N 023-000-00337-6 $1.00

Renovate an Old House? Describes and illustrates things to consider when deciding about the renovation of a frame house. 1976. 21 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03505-3 $1.10

New Life for Old Dwellings, Appraisal and Rehabilitation. Often an older wood-frame house can be rehabilitated for lower cost that constructing a new house. The appraisal section of this book deals with the suitability of various parts of a house for rehabilitation, and the second section tells how to accomplish these changes. 1975, rep 1980. 99 p. il.
S/N 001-000-02988-6 $4.00

Handbook for the Home: 1973 Yearbook of Agriculture. Whether you are purchasing a home, building a patio, putting up curtains, creating a terrarium, or fixing a leak in the basement, this book has an article to help you. Also included are tips on how to buy luggage, dig duck ponds, trap rats, grow tomatoes in plastic bags, and much more. This book will quickly become an indispensable guide to just about everything you do around your house. 1973. 338 p. il.
S/N 001-000-02960-6 Cloth, $5.70

Painting Inside and Out. Describes and illustrates surface preparation, paint selection and application, whitewash, and stains for both exterior and interior surfaces. 1978. 26 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03874-5 $1.30

Interior Wiring. Contains practical information on the design, layout, installation, and maintenance of electrical wiring systems. 1968, rep 1977. 120 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00401-4 $2.40

Basic Electricity. Prepared by the Defense Department, this manual provides a complete course in fundamental electricity, from elementary theory to actual practice. 1969, rep 1980. 490 p. il.
S/N 008-047-00069-3 $10.00

Soldering Electrical Connections. Prepared for use as an internal document at the George C. Marshall Space Flight Center, this book contains many suggestions that are practical for homeowners and "do-it-yourself" electricians. 1967, rep 1979. 66 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00246-7 $2.10

Simple Home Repairs. The following two booklets contain information to help you perform routine repair and maintenance chores around the home.

Inside. This great little booklet can teach you to fix your own leaking faucet, faulty electric plug, torn screen, broken plaster, and more. 1973. 23 p. il.
S/N 001-000-02815-4 $1.50

Outside. A guide to repairing or replacing roofs, shingles, gutters, and more outside the house. 1978. 40 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03749-8 $1.50

Septic Tank Care. Contains helpful information on the proper care and maintenance of a sewage disposal system. 1975. Folder, il.
S/N 017-002-00068-6 $1.00

Fireplaces and Chimneys. Describes the proper method of constructing a fireplace and tells how to perform simple maintenance. 1971, rep 1978. 23 p. il.
S/N 001-000-01520-6 $1.00

Construction Guide for Exposed Wood Decks. Describes and illustrates methods of constructing low-level, hillside, and rooftop decks for homes. 1972, rep 1978. 78 p. il.
S/N 001-000-02577-5 $2.00

NASA Tech House. This non-technical booklet describes and illustrates the innovative features of Tech House (Technology Utilization House), which consumes only about one-third the electricity and one-half the water of comparably sized homes. It incorporates solar heating, central air conditioning, a super-efficient fireplace, shutters, burglar alarms, fire-resistant construction, a wastewater recycler, three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a garage into a design that can be built for approximately $50,000 (1977 dollars). 1977. 19 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00704-3 $1.10

Design Guide for Home Safety. This book points out the many areas of home design that should be influenced by safety considerations. The potential dangers of poor design are enumerated and specific recommendations are made for reducing each hazard. Many of the recommendations are suitable for retrofit applications to existing homes, and plain language and illustrations are used throughout. 1972. 147 p. il.
S/N 023-000-00201-9 $4.75

What You Should Know About Smoke Detectors. This Consumer Product Safety Commission booklet describes how smoke detectors work and gives advice to help you decide which type is right for your home and how many you need for adequate protection. It includes guidelines for choosing the proper location for your smoke detector and tips for maintaining it in optimum operating condition. 1978. 8 p. il.
S/N 052-011-00203-8 $1.00

Controlling Household Pests. This handy booklet can help you to select and use pesticides to control rats, termites, cockroaches, moths, and other pests. Rev 1979. 31 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03927-0 $1.50

Cockroaches: How to Control Them. Describes various types of cockroaches and the best means of eliminating them from the home. Rev 1978. 10 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03835-4 $1.00

You Can Protect Your Home From Termites. Termites are picky eaters, but they thrive on the smoothly planed lumber of a house. This publication describes the various types of termites and their living and eating habits, illustrates obvious signs of termite infestation, shows which structural situations attract termites, and provides information on keeping termites in the woods and out of the house. 1977. 12 p. il.
S/N 001-001-00420-1 $1.00

Hobbies and Leisure Activities

Fishing in the National Park System. A review of the fishing opportunities in each of our National Parks. 1969, rep 1976. 16 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00004-6 $1.00

Anglers' Guide to the United States Atlantic Coast. The following eight atlases are geographical studies of marine recreational fishing for various segments of the US Atlantic coast. These large format (16″ x 14″) books list various fishing and boating facilities; describe local conditions and characteristics of fishing; and discuss diagnostic features, life habits, and environmental requirements of common fishes.

Section I, Passamaquoddy Bay, Maine to Cape Cod. 1974. 15 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00068-1 $1.60

Section II, Nantucket Shoals to Long Island Sound. 1974. 15 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00070-3 $1.60

Section III, Block Island to Cape May, New Jersey. 1974. 20 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00071-1 $4.25

Section IV, Delaware Bay to False Cape, Virginia. 1974. 17 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00072-0 $1.60

Section V, Chesapeake Bay. 1976. 17 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00096-7 $4.75

Section VI, False Cape, Virginia to Altahama Sound, Georgia. 1976. 21 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00097-5 $4.25

Section VII, Altahama Sound, Georgia to Fort Pierce Inlet, Florida. 1976. 21 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00098-3 $4.25

Section VIII, St. Lucie Inlet, Florida to the Dry Tortugas. 1976. 25 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00099-1 $5.25

Anglers' Guide to the United States Pacific Coast. This book contains a series of section-by-section maps of the Pacific coast (including Alaska and the Pacific islands) that show the more frequently fished areas, the species of fish that are commonly taken, and the facilities available. Also included is a descriptive list of over 200 game fish, most with illustrations. 1977. 139 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00113-1 $7.50

NOAA Diving Manual: Diving for Science and Technology. The new second edition of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's popular manual. NOAA developed this guide to provide its scientist-divers with a single-volume summary of the fundamentals of general diving and with specialized instruction in diving for scientific purposes. Because it contains state-of-the-art information on the theory and practice of diving, it is also of use to the sport diver and to those diving for scientific or technological purposes. 1979. 548 p. il.
S/N 003-017-00468-6 $13.00

Marine Life Posters. The following four posters depict various marine animals and fish that are native to specific regions of the US. Each brightly colored poster is printed on a waterproof, tear-resistant, latex-coated sheet. Posters are shipped in tubes.

Marine Fishes of the Gulf and South Atlantic. Forty-nine species of fish are pictured. 1973, rep 1978. Poster, 48 x 30 inches, il.
S/N 003-020-00065-7 $2.30

Fishes of the Great Lakes. Shows 52 species common to the Great Lakes region. 1976. Poster, 48 x 30 inches, il.
S/N 003-020-00069-0 $3.25

Mollusks and Crustaceans of the Coastal United States. The 60 species pictured represent a cross section of the many types of mollusks and crustaceans that inhabit the coastal US. 1974. Poster, 48 x 30 inches, il.
S/N 003-020-00087-8 $3.20

Marine Mammals of the Western Hemisphere. Shows the different species of whales, dolphins, otters, seals, porpoises, and other marine mammals of the Western Hemisphere. 1975. Poster, 36 x 24 inches, il.
S/N 003-020-00106-8 $5.00

Whales, Dolphins, and Porpoises of the Western North Atlantic: A Guide to Their Identification. This field guide helps you identify the whales, dolphins, and porpoises you are likely to see along the Atlantic coastal waters of the US and Canada, including the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean. The animals are grouped by similarities in appearance to aid in identification, with copious photographs providing the principal means of recognition. A special appendix tells you how to collect and report your observation data to the appropriate scientific institution. 1976. 176 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00119-0 $3.35

Student Pilot Guide. Answers most of the questions prospective pilots may have about obtaining their pilot certificates. It tells how to prepare for the private pilot written test and flight test and gives sample questions on general and visual flight rules. Rev 1977. 33 p.
S/N 050-007-00476-1 $2.25

Pilot's Weight and Balance Handbook. A comprehensive, easy-to-understand text on aircraft weight and balance. Begins with fundamentals and progresses to the complex application of weight and balance principles to large aircraft operations. Suitable as a training guide for the beginning weight and balance student or as a reference for the veteran pilot. 1977, rep 1979. 68 p. il.
S/N 050-007-00405-2 $3.25

Aviation Weather for Pilots and Flight Operations Personnel. This book explains weather facts every pilot should know, including topics of special interest, such as high altitude, Arctic, tropical, and soaring weather. 1975. 219 p. il.
S/N 050-007-00283-1 $7.00

Airframe & Powerplant Mechanics Handbooks. The following two volumes were developed by the Federal Aviation Administration to detail the knowledge required for certification as a mechanic with either a powerplant or an airframe rating. Both books provide illustrated, in-depth instructional or reference information of value to anyone with an interest in aircraft mechanics.

Powerplant Handbook. Provides specific, detailed information on the operation, maintenance, and repair of the entire range of engines used in today's aircraft. This information is organized by engine system, generally beginning with a short introduction to its theory, and progressing through operations and techniques relevant to the system as it is modified for the various engine types. 1977. 500 p. il.
S/N 050-007-00373-1 $6.50

Airframe Handbook. Introduces aircraft structure through a description of airframe types, a discussion of structural stress, and close examinations of airframe components, configurations, assembly, and rigging. Each component system is then treated in an individual chapter, including painting and finishing, landing gear, electrical systems, etc. Special chapters on structural repair and aircraft welding are included. 1977. 601 p. il.
S/N 050-007-00391-9 $6.00

Fifty Birds of Town and City. Did you know that catbirds mew like cats when alarmed or that nighthawks create their own "sonic boom" by diving toward the ground and flaring upward at the last moment? These and many other interesting facts are presented in this colorful book about the birds we see every day in our city parks and right in our own backyards. It will delight anyone who is interested in birds. 1973, rep 1979. 50 p. il.
S/N 024-010-00332-4 $2.20

Cavity-Nesting Birds of North American Forests. Cavity-nesting birds, so named because they make their homes in the cavities of dead or decaying trees, make up a large proportion of the forest-dwelling bird population. This attractive book contains full-color illustrations of the male and female for each of the 85 species of North American cavity-nesting birds. Small range maps show where the birds are likely to be found during different seasons, and the habitat, nesting practices, and dietary requirements for each species are summarized. 1977. 112 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03726-9 $3.50

Ducks at a Distance: A Waterfowl Identification Guide. This colorful little book can help you to identify ducks and geese on the wing. For each major species it provides full-color illustrations of flying shape and flight pattern and descriptions of the flight characteristics, nesting and migration habits, and the sound of the bird's call. 1978. 52 p. il.
S/N 024-010-00442-8 $1.80

Beekeeping for Beginners. Keeping honey bees is a fascinating and profitable hobby that can be enjoyed almost anywhere in the US with relatively little trouble and a minimum of expense. Beekeeping for Beginners contains the basic information you need to get started, including advice on selecting bees, building a beehive, nourishing a bee colony, dealing with stings, and much more. 1974, rev 1979. 12 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03936-9 $1.00

Horsemanship and Horse Care. Horses may be classified as light horses, ponies, and draft horses according to size, build, and use. This booklet discusses light horses, which are used primarily for riding, driving, racing, or light farm work. Guidelines are given for selecting a light horse; purchasing riding equipment; riding and showing a horse; horse shelters; feeding, grooming, and breeding horses; and much more. 1972. 48 p. il.
S/N 001-000-01475-7 $1.00

Breeding and Raising Horses. A handbook of light horses and ponies, with detailed information on the various breeds, selecting and judging horses, horsemanship, breed registry associations, horse magazines, and much more. Also contains illustrated instructions for riding, including mounting, holding the reins, saddle position, riding equipment, and related information. 1972. 81 p. il.
S/N 001-000-01347-5 $1.40

Prospecting for Gold in the United States. Fewer than one prospector in a thousand has ever made a "strike," yet as a vacation diversion or even a serious hobby, prospecting offers a unique and very special excitement. This pamphlet presents a broad discussion of the history of prospecting, a review of the areas in which gold has been found, and some valuable references to sources of maps and additional information. 1976. 15 p. il.
S/N 024-001-02036-0 $1.50

Gemstones of the US. Sixteen groups of gemstones are discussed, including their variations, hardness, specific gravity, and location. An extensive chart of the locations in which the various gems are found is also included. 1957, rep 1976. 50 p.
S/N 024-001-00006-7 $1.00

Postage Stamps of the US. An illustrated description of all US postage and special service stamps to 1970. Whether your favorite

Domestic and Foreign Coins
Manufactured by Mints of the United States 1793-1976
OUR AMERICAN COINS
MEDALS of the United States Mint
★ THE ★ BACK-YARD MECHANIC
UNITED STATES POSTAGE STAMPS

philatelist is a beginner or an established collector, this book will make a most welcome gift. Looseleaf, punched to fit your three-ring binder. 1970. 287 p. il.
S/N 039-000-00224-8 $3.20

Supplements to Postage Stamps of the US. The following five supplements contain information on new stamps issued after May 1970 and will update the basic manual. Each is looseleaf and punched to fit your three-ring binder.

Transmittal Letter No. 2. Covers stamps issued from July 1970 to February 1972. 1972. 52 p. il.
S/N 039-000-00243-4 $1.50

Transmittal Letter No. 3. Covers stamps issued from February 1972 to December 1973. 1974. 62 p. il
S/N 039-000-00251-5 $1.30

Transmittal Letter No. 4. Adds information for stamps issued during 1974. 1975. 42 p. il.
S/N 039-000-00255-8 $1.30

Transmittal Letter No. 5. Covers stamps issued during 1975. 1976. 34 p. il.
S/N 039-000-00256-6 $1.25

Transmittal Letter No. 6. Covers stamps issued during 1976 and 1977. 1979.
S/N 039-000-00262-1 $2.50

Domestic and Foreign Coins Manufactured by Mints of the United States, 1793–1976. A complete historical record of the coins manufactured by US Mints from 1793 through December 31, 1976. Domestic coinage is reported by Mint, class, denomination, and year of production. Tables show total coins manufactured by year and class. 1978. 155 p. il.
S/N 048-005-00021-7 $3.00

Medals of the US Mint. This impressive catalog lists and describes 253 historic medals that have been authorized by the US Congress, including the famous Presidential medals. Each entry includes a photograph and description of the medal, as well as a chronological outline of the honored individual's life and public service. Medals of the US Mint is an invaluable reference aid for historians and collectors alike. Rev 1972. 312 p. il.
S/N 048-004-00497-6 $5.25

Facts About United States Money. Contains general information about the manufacture and circulation of US money and explains how money is coined and how paper currency is printed. It locates and explains the important features on paper currency, gives specifications for US coins, tells how unfit money is destroyed, and more. 1977. 28 p. il.
S/N 048-000-00301-0 $1.20

Our American Coins. Contains brief biographies of the US Presidents who appear on six of our coins. Pictures the front and back of each coin, explains the symbols on each, and tells who designed them. Rev 1974. 23 p. il.
S/N 048-005-00016-1 $1.00

The Back-Yard Mechanic. These excellent books are comprised of articles from Driver magazine that help you save money by doing simple auto repair and maintenance jobs yourself. Each volume is fully illustrated and contains step-by-step instructions.

Volume One. Takes willing but inexperienced mechanics step-by-step through an oil change, a lube job, a transmission check, and the installation of disc brake pads—all simple jobs that require less than an hour and can save you lots of money. It also introduces the amazing vacuum gauge, a tiny engine doctor that sells for about $5.00 and diagnoses more than 30 common engine ailments. 1976. rep 1978. 57 p. il.
S/N 008-070-00374-1 $1.60

Volume Two. Applies the general information contained in Volume One to slightly more involved car maintenance and repair procedures. It discusses ignition systems and spark plugs and walks you one step at a time through a tune-up, a brake relining, a brake system flushing and bleeding, a power brake check, a carburetor cleaning, an air conditioner check, and an oil change and front end lube. 1978. 77 p. il.

S/N 008-070-00406-2 $1.60

CB: Citizens Band Radio Service Rules. Attention CBers! Here's the new, simplified edition of the rules and regulations governing the operation of Citizens Band radios, including a troubleshooting checklist, a copy of the form you must submit to the FCC for your license, and a temporary permit for you to fill out and use until your license arrives. 1978. 56 p. il.
S/N 004-000-00356-0 $1.25

FCC Rules and Regulations, Part 97, Amateur Radio Service, 1979. A listing of the Commission's rules and regulations governing amateur radio service as of January 1979. 1979. 28 p.
S/N 004-000-00357-8 $1.40

FCC Broadcast Operator Handbook. A practical study guide for persons interested in obtaining the Radiotelephone Third Class Operator Permit with the endorsement to operate broadcast radio stations. FCC examinations for the permit are prepared from the material in this book. It can also serve as a concise reference for operators already active in the broadcasting field. 1976. 103 p. il.
S/N 004-000-00329-2 $3.00

Troubleshooting and Repair of Radio Equipment. This Army Technical Manual is used as a training manual and reference book by the Armed Forces. Carefully detailed and illustrated, it contains a wealth of information expressed in a straightforward, easy-to-understand manner. It covers procedures, test equipment, vehicular installations, receiver alignment, and more. 1958, rep 1973. 188 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00040-0 $7.00

How to Identify & Resolve Radio-TV Interference. Illustrated advice to help you rid your radio, TV, electronic organ, stereo, etc. of noises and/or picture distortions caused by interference from electrical appliances, ham radios, and so on. 1977, rep 1979. 33 p. il.
S/N 004-000-00345-4 $2.00

Fundamentals of Electronics, Volume 1A. This, the first of a nine-volume series, is intended for those who are just becoming acquainted with electronics and electricity. It introduces measurement and the structure of matter, electrostatics, magnetism, voltage, direct current, and other topics. 1965, rep 1976. 147 p. il.
S/N 008-047-00097-9 $5.00

Basic Electronics. The following two volumes are Navy training manuals. They present a basic course in electronics and, although intended for the use of naval personnel, are suitable for anyone with an interest in electronics.

Volume 1. Presents general information about electronics equipment, testing devices, and safety procedures, followed by a study of fundamental electronic devices, such as transistors and electron tubes, and some of the basic circuit arrangements in which they are found. Also explores communications theory and includes a detailed discussion of basic receiving and transmitting circuits for conventional amplitude-modulated, frequency-modulated, and single-sideband systems. Concludes with a review of transmission lines, antennas, and wave propagation. 1971, rep 1979. 566 p. il.
S/N 008-047-00134-7 $7.70

Volume 2. Covers dual trace oscilloscopes, operation and application of pulse forming and pulse shaping circuits, and microwave devices such as klystrons, magnetrons, phantastrons, resonant cavities, waveguides, and duplexers. Includes detailed coverage of microwave receiving, transmitting, and indicating systems. Presents synchro and servo systems in detail and discusses number systems and logic circuits. Rev 1979. 323 p. il.

S/N 008-047-00296-3 $6.50

Bicycling for Everyone. With the increasing energy crunch, more and more people are turning to the bicycle, not only for recreation, but as a mode of transportation as well. This colorful booklet outlines the pleasures and problems of bicycling and gives bicycling safety hints and other useful information. 1974. 23 p. il.
S/N 050-000-00082-6 $1.00

Tools and Their Uses. This manual provides descriptions, general uses, correct operation, and approved maintenance procedures for power and hand tools. 1971, rep 1977. 179 p.
S/N 008-047-00145-2 $1.95

Adhesives for Everyday Use. This booklet contains the information you need to select and apply adhesives around the house or in the hobby shop. 1970. 15 p.
S/N 003-003-00682-3 $1.00

Wood Handbook: Wood as an Engineering Material. Provides engineers, architects, and serious wood hobbyists with a comprehensive source of information on the physical properties of wood. 1974, rep 1978. 433 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03200-3 Cloth, $10.00

Gardening and Landscaping

The Green Scene. Still one of our most popular publications, this book gives advice on growing 24 common house and office plants, including the avocado, gardenia, grape ivy, and rubber tree. Rep 1975. 62 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00536-6 $1.20

Selecting and Growing House Plants. This book contains a description and growing instructions for each of the more than 50 houseplants that have proven to be most popular and successful for home growing. It includes tips on selecting, potting, watering, and fertilizing houseplants, as well as advice for growing plants in dim light, plant health, summer care, and propagation of plants. 1978. 32 p. il.
S/N 001-000-00863-3 $1.75

Indoor Gardening. Here's how to keep your green thumb green when it's snowing outside. This great little booklet shows you how to build 11 different attractive indoor gardens, each designed for beautiful display of your indoor plants, as well as for their vigorous propagation. It also provides you with expert advice on selecting a lighting system, guidelines for stocking the garden, directions on caring for your plants, and recommendations on a dozen plants for beginners. 1978. 47 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03758-7 $1.70

Building Hobby Greenhouses. Everything you need to know to build a hobby greenhouse. Discusses the different types of greenhouses, designing a greenhouse, selecting a site, construction materials, types of frames, heating and cooling systems, and more. Rev 1977. 20 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03692-1 $1.50

Roses for the Home. Describes and illustrates plant selection, location, soil preparation, planting, and pruning of rose bushes. 1978. 25 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03848-6 $1.20

Growing Flowering Perennials. This booklet provides all the information necessary to grow perennials. It includes instructions for planting your garden, watering, mulching, fertilizing, and cultivating, as well as directions for starting perennials indoors and later transplanting them outside. Rev 1970. 32 p. il.
S/N 001-000-00783-1 $1.00

Growing Flowering Annuals. Explains how to select, plant, and maintain flowering annuals. 1975. 20 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03411-1 $1.00

Lawn Insects: How To Control Them. Describes and illustrates insects that infest soil and grass roots and that feed on leaves, stems, and plant juices, as well as those that inhabit but do not damage lawns. Also describes the use of pesticides to control lawn insects. Rev 1980. 20 p. il.
S/N 001-000-04142-8 $1.50

Insects and Related Pests of Houseplants. This bulletin tells you how to identify, by appearance and damage, the 16 most common houseplant pests and how to control them. Rev 1977. 14 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03498-7 $1.00

Insects on Trees and Shrubs Around the Home. Uses illustrations and photographs of likely suspects to help you identify problem insects in your garden. Includes advice for getting rid of garden pests. Rev 1980. 51 p. il.
S/N 001-000-04029-4 $3.50

Lawn Diseases, How To Control Them. This illustrated booklet describes the symptoms for 14 of the most common lawn diseases and includes advice to help you control infestations. Rev 1978. 20 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03806-1 $1.30

Trees for Shade and Beauty: Their Selection and Care. This pamphlet talks about the important factors in tree selection and care, including form, size, and undesirable characteristics. 1980. 8 p. il.
S/N 001-000-04112-6 $1.00

Shade Trees for the Home. This book provides a brief description of various shade trees, tells how to select, plant, and care for them, and discusses the climate and type of soil best suited to their cultivation. 1973. 48 p. il.
S/N 001-000-02496-5 $1.00

Shade Tree Pruning. Tells how to prune a shade tree to maximize revitalizing effects and minimize damage. 1955, rep 1977. 25 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00147-6 $1.75

Gardening for Food and Fun: 1977 Yearbook of Agriculture. This well-written, beautifully illustrated book contains 59 articles dealing with every facet of home vegetable and fruit gardening. 1977. 392 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03679-3 Cloth, $6.50

Growing Vegetables in the Home Garden. Contains information for gardeners at all levels of experience and discusses the specifics of site preparation, seeding, transplanting, weeding, pruning, harvesting, and more. 1978. 49 p. il.
S/N 001-000-02604-6 $1.75

Minigardens for Vegetables. This booklet explains how apartment dwellers and others without conventional gardens can grow their own produce. It describes special containers, varieties of seeds, planting tips, and more. 1970, rev 1978. 12 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03834-6 $1.00

Growing Tomatoes in the Home Garden. Tomatoes are one of the most popular vegetables grown in home gardens. Anyone with as much as a pot of soil can cultivate tomatoes. This Department of Agriculture booklet summarizes the advice of expert researchers to assure that your tomato plants will thrive. Rev 1978. 14 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03822-2 $1.00

Tomato Diseases and Their Control. This book goes into extensive detail, using photographs and tables, on the identification and treatment of various diseases which attack tomato plants. Rev 1972. 109 p. il.
S/N 001-000-02466-3 $1.40

Radish Production. Describes the different varieties of radishes and tells how to plant, cultivate, and harvest them. 1979. 5 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03942-3 $1.00

Growing Raspberries. Provides guidelines for planting, cultivating, and harvesting raspberries. Rev 1979. 15 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03908-3 $1.00

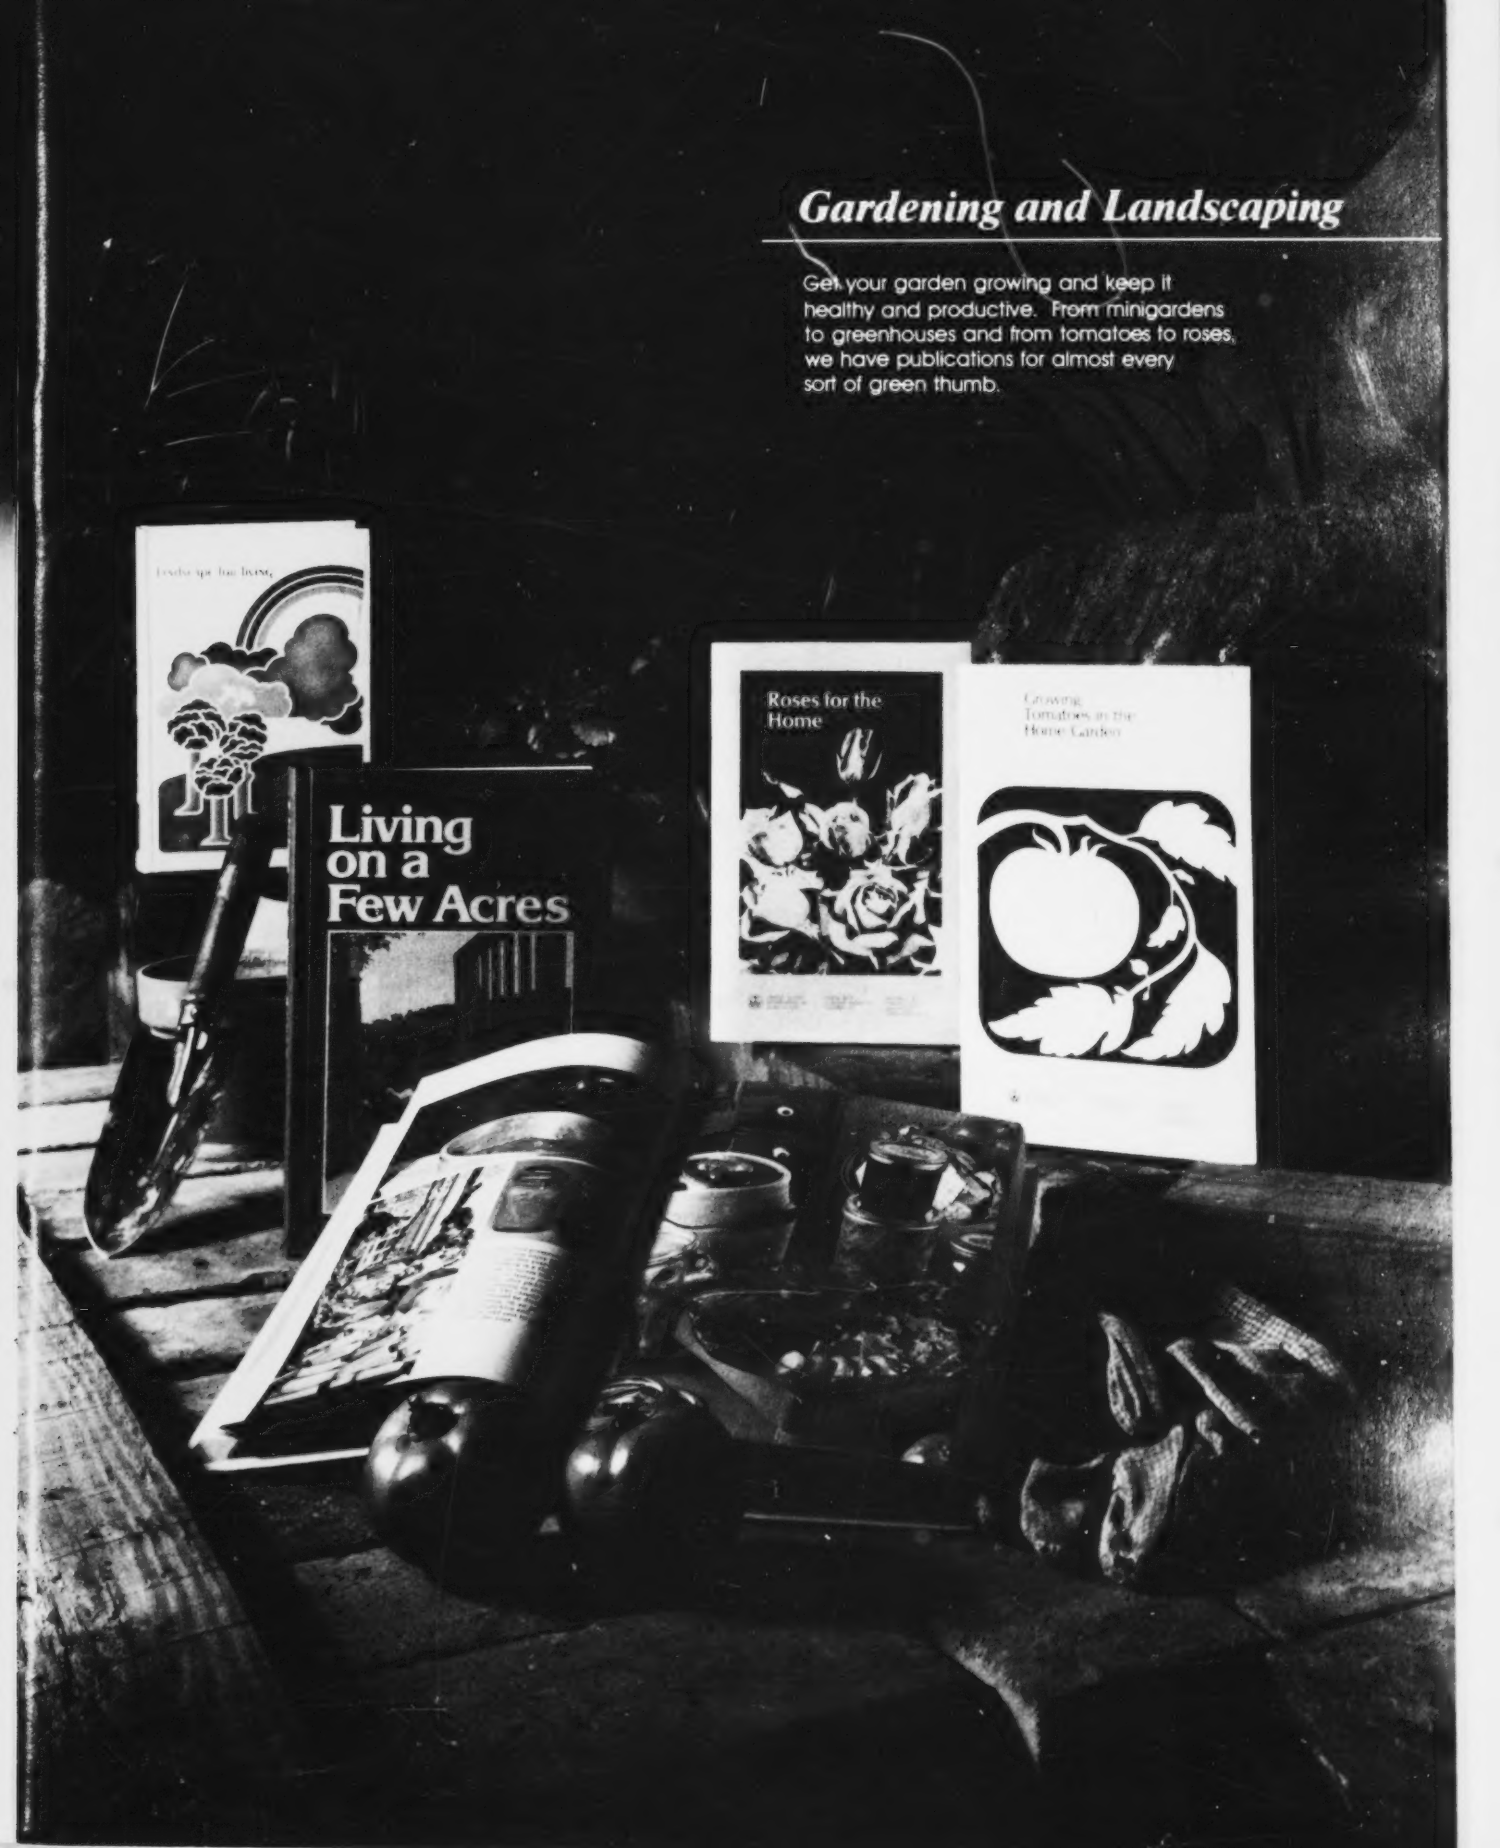
Gardening and Landscaping

Get your garden growing and keep it healthy and productive. From minigardens to greenhouses and from tomatoes to roses, we have publications for almost every sort of green thumb.



Strawberry Diseases. This publication describes the diseases that attack strawberry plants, identifies their symptoms, provides advice on the care of infected plants, and discusses the most effective preventive measures. 1978. 27 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03752-8 $1.10

Living on a Few Acres: 1978 Yearbook of Agriculture. The Yearbook's 48 chapters cover virtually every aspect of part-time farming and include expert advice on raising vegetables, grapes, berries, ornamental plants, herbs, nuts, poultry, pigs, goats, rabbits, Christmas trees, and earthworms. In addition, it includes special sections for those who presently are dreaming about a farm of their own. These chapters discuss the pros and cons of owning a farm, provide guidance on acquiring the right spot, offer advice on making improvements, review ways to make the most of the land, and tell you how to sell your property. 1978. 432 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03809-5 Cloth, $7.00

Landscape for Living: 1972 Yearbook of Agriculture. Contains more than 60 articles on the various ways you can use plants to improve your environment, including chapters on gardening, landscaping, attracting birds, brightening neighborhoods, rent-a-garden projects, and more. 1972. 416 p. il.
S/N 001-000-02441-8 Cloth, $6.85

Environment and Weather

Wildlife Portrait Series #1. A descriptive booklet accompanies this set of 10 full-color, 14 x 17 inch photo reproductions of various wildlife in their natural habitats. The set includes suitable-for-framing prints of bighorn sheep, bison, ferret, chachalaca bird, avocet, pronghorn antelope, snowy egret, trumpeter swan, pintail duck, and sandhill crane. 1969. 10 posters and booklet, 12 p.
S/N 024-010-00190-9 $3.45

Waterfowl Tomorrow. This well-illustrated book discusses the needs of the 48 species of ducks, geese, and swans that live on the North American continent. It describes the lands and waters that sustain these waterfowl in Canada, Mexico, and the US. Highlighted are the flyways, habitats, and patterns of these birds, as well as man's role in their future. 1964. 770 p. il.
S/N 024-010-00013-9 Cloth, $10.40

Symbol of Our Nation. This pamphlet describes the American Bald Eagle as both a symbol of America and an endangered species. Included is a suitable-for-framing, 16 x 20 inch reproduction of an American Bald Eagle by wildlife artist Bob Hines. 1975. 3 p and poster.
S/N 024-010-00408-8 $1.85

Everglades Wildguide. Part of the Department of Interior's Natural History series, this beautifully illustrated guide describes the Florida Everglades and the natural interactions that support the diverse plant and animal communities in the Everglades. It is an excellent research source and provides a good foundation for understanding all aspects of this fascinating wilderness. 1972, rep 1979. 105 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00497-1 $3.00

Questions About the Oceans. Developed out of a popular responding teletype exhibit at an international science fair, this book asks and answers 100 of the most typical questions about oceans and oceanography. Particular attention is given to presenting the material in language understandable to secondary school students. Each question and answer is followed by references to more information on the topic. 1968, rep 1977. 120 p. il.
S/N 008-042-00032-2 $2.00

Clouds. This brochure uses photographs to explain the different types of clouds and their importance in weather forecasting. 1974, rep 1978. 8 p. il.
S/N 003-014-00016-9 $1.25

Cloud Code Chart. The correct interpretation of cloud data is a very important part of accurate weather forecasting. Certain types of clouds precede a severe storm, while others herald the arrival of fair weather. The Cloud Code Chart illustrates and describes 36 different cloud formations according to the international system of cloud classification. Clouds are divided into three basic groups, low clouds, medium clouds, and high clouds. Each basic group contains nine characteristic forms which have been identified all over the world. This 31 x 19 inch National Weather Service wall chart can help observers, students, and others who are interested in forecasting the weather identify the various cloud forms. 1972, rep 1978. Poster, il.
S/N 003-018-00050-4 $1.00

Tornado. Of all the winds that sweep the Earth's surface, tornadoes are the most violent. When they touch down in a populated area, they leave paths of terrible destruction. This booklet tells what tornadoes are and what they can do, when and where they are most likely to occur, what they look like, and most importantly, what can be done to minimize their destructive, possibly lethal effects. Rev 1978. 6 p. il.
S/N 003-018-00085-7 $1.00

Hurricane: The Greatest Storm on Earth. Although hurricanes are not the largest or most violent storms in our atmosphere, they have accounted for thousands of deaths and billions of dollars in property damage in our hemisphere alone. This booklet describes Project Stormfury, an attempt by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration to learn enough about hurricanes to be able to determine whether they can be altered through cloud seedings. The Greatest Storm on Earth also explains how a hurricane is formed, how it travels, the destruction it causes, and how forecasters are working to provide early warning to those in the path of a hurricane. 1977. 20 p. il.
S/N 003-018-00077-6 $2.00

Storm Surge and Hurricane Safety, With North Atlantic Tracking Chart. The most dangerous aspect of a hurricane is the storm surge, which causes nine out of ten hurricane-related fatalities. The storm surge is a great dome of water, sometimes 50 miles wide, that sweeps across the coastline near the area where the eye of a hurricane touches down. This National Weather Service pamphlet describes the causes and effects of storm surge and what you can do to protect your home and family from this extremely dangerous weather phenomenon. It includes an action checklist of the many things to consider before, during, and after a hurricane, as well as a North Atlantic tracking chart that will let you plot the path and direction of an impending tropical storm or hurricane. 1979. Folder, il.
S/N 003-018-00092-0 $1.00

Earthquakes. The nature, location, measurement, and predicting of earthquakes and tremors are discussed in this illustrated booklet. 1978. 19 p. il.
S/N 024-001-02031-9 $1.00

"Nature to be Commanded . . ." This large-format, beautifully illustrated book describes how earth science maps can be used by urban planners to help insure that future developments make the best use of natural resources while minimizing the risk from natural hazards. 1978. 95 p. il.
S/N 024-001-03011-0 $7.00

Climate Change to the Year 2000: A Survey of Expert Opinion. Sparked by the severe 1976-77 winter in the eastern half of the US and subsequent drought conditions in other parts of the country, controversy has arisen about whether the climate is merely fluctuating or is in a long-term trend of change. This book surveys and compiles the opinions of 24 climatologists on the definition and estimation of the likelihood of climatic changes during the next 25 years. Five possible climatic scenarios are presented and the probability of each is estimated. 1978. 109 p. il.

(Continued on the next page)

S/N 008-020-00738-2 $3.75

Energy Conservation

The Energy-Wise Home Buyer: A Guide to Selecting an Energy Efficient Home. Attention homebuyers—this guide can help you choose a home that will meet your family's needs and also be energy efficient. It will show you how a house uses energy, how you can estimate your energy costs, and how to evaluate the energy efficiency of a variety of homes. In addition, it includes several energy checklists to take along when you inspect a house, as well as a number of tips on how to save energy after you move in. 1979. 60 p. il.
S/N 023-000-00518-2 $3.00

In the Bank . . . or Up the Chimney? This excellent book shows you where you can conserve energy in your home, provides an accurate estimate of how much it's going to cost, and tells you how to do it. Suggested measures include both low-cost, do-it-yourself projects and more expensive items that may require the services of a contractor. Step-by-step instructions for insulating doors and windows, buying and installing attic and basement insulation, and much more are included. 1975, rev 1977. 77 p. il.
S/N 023-000-00411-9 $1.70

Save Energy: Save Money! Designed especially for people without the skills, ability, or resources to undertake major winter-proofing alterations, this book provides several series of simple, low-cost repairs and modifications that can help you to save money and stay warmer at the same time. Everything is carefully explained in plain language and illustrations help to clarify the details. Rev 1977. 48 p. il.
S/N 059-000-00002-1 $1.50

An Economical and Efficient Heating System for Homes. This production research report uses charts and graphs to describe a heating system for single-family homes that is designed to be low cost, require little maintenance, and provide high efficiency. 1967. 26 p. il.
S/N 001-000-00973-7 $1.00

Energy Efficiency in Light-Frame Wood Construction. Provides helpful information for the design and construction of energy efficient light-frame wood structures. It stresses the role of housing design and landscape planning in building energy-efficient homes, including orientation of the home, placement and design of windows, architectural strategies for comfort through natural use of sun and shade, and much more. 1979. 58 p. il.
S/N 001-001-00465-1 $2.50

Alternatives in Energy Conservation: The Use of Earth Covered Buildings. The proceedings of a 1975 conference held to determine the social utility and likely implementation problems of earth covered buildings. A technical but intriguing book for anyone interested in alternative methods of energy conservation and building construction. 1976. 353 p. il.
S/N 038-000-00286-4 $5.25

An Inexpensive, Economical Solar Heating System. Describes a low-cost solar home heating system designed to supplement an existing warm-air heating system. Includes instructions for constructing such a system, using off-the-shelf components, at an estimated cost of $2000. 1976. 56 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00632-2 $1.15

Solar Dwelling Design Concepts. This general resource book is intended for use by designers, home builders, community leaders, local officials, and homeowners who are interested in the application of solar heating and cooling to residential structures or who are considering participation in the Federal solar energy program. It provides background information, a concise report on existing solar dwellings and systems, a list of design considerations, and numerous dwelling and site design concepts which are responsive to factors such as housing type, solar heating system, and climate. 1976. 146 p. il.

S/N 023-000-00334-1 $2.30

Building the Solar Home: Some Early Lessons Learned. Provides practical guidelines for residential builders and developers who are considering solar energy projects and for the solar manufacturers, installers, and distributors who service them. 1978. 36 p. il.
S/N 023-000-00455-1 $1.70

Home Mortgage Lending and Solar Energy. Discusses the promise and problems of solar energy from the buyer's and builder's perspectives, as well as the lender's point of view. 1977. 31 p.
S/N 023-000-00387-2 $1.40

Windmill Power for City People. Documents the experiences of a group of "urban homesteading" tenants and energy specialists who designed and installed the first urban windmill atop a housing cooperative on Manhattan's lower east side. Explains the system's design and installation and evaluates its performance and implications for city agencies and the Nation's largest utility company. 1977. 65 p. il.
S/N 059-000-00001-2 $2.60

Wind Machines. Wind is a clean, replenishable source of energy, and, although intermittent and relatively reduced in strength compared to fossil fuels, it constitutes a large and practically untapped energy source. Wind Machines provides a brief survey of the viability, history, classification, and potential of various types and sizes of wind machines that might be used to help meet future US energy demands. 1975, rep 1980. 77 p. il.
S/N 038-000-00272-4 $4.25

Energy-Saving Electric Motors. A brief guide to selecting a good electric motor for your business. Tells how electric motors operate and how their energy efficiency can be measured. 1977. 14 p. il.
S/N 041-018-00145-0 $1.00

National Topics

1981 National ZIP Code & Post Office Directory. An up-to-date and comprehensive listing of ZIP code information by State and post office. Includes instructions for quickly finding a ZIP code number when an address is known, as well as the official lists of post offices, named stations, named branches, and community post offices in the US. Contains a wealth of handy information about ZIP codes, postal abbreviations, and basic postal procedures. 1981.
S/N 039-000-00264-7 $8.00

The Budget of the United States Government, Fiscal Year 1982. The following four books constitute the President's budget proposals, with supporting documentation, for fiscal year 1982.

The Budget of the US Government, Fiscal Year 1982. Includes the President's budget message, his budget philosophy and general assumptions about our economy, a description of the US budget system, an explanation of how the budgeted programs meet needs, and summary tables showing how much the Federal Government receives and spends. 1981.
S/N 041-001-00207-3 $6.25

The United States Budget in Brief. An abridged explanation of the budget for the layman who wants to learn more about how the Federal Government works and how his tax dollar is spent without getting involved in technical language. Describes and discusses Federal budget plans in the areas of education, health, defense, income security, and more. 1981.
S/N 041-001-00210-3 $3.00

Appendix. Contains the specific language of each agency's request for funds, as well as a statement of the agency's programs and activities, a summary of how these programs are to be financed, and the goods and services that are scheduled for purchase. Includes funding levels for each branch of the Government, as well as detailed information on certain activities where funding is not included as part of the budget totals. 1981.
S/N 041-001-00209-0 $15.50

Are You Planning on Living the Rest of Your Life? This helpful booklet covers the aspects of retirement that are often overlooked. It contains tips on how to plan for and enjoy your retirement and discusses the pros and cons of moving to a different area, how to find out the amount of earnings recorded in your Social Security account, and more. 1965, rep 1977. 72 p.
S/N 017-062-00038-7 $2.00

Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents. A perennial Government bestseller that summarizes Federal benefits for veterans, their dependents, and beneficiaries. The purpose, nature, eligibility requirements, and application agency for each benefit are provided. Covers benefits effective as of January 1, 1980. 1980. 73 p.
S/N 051-000-00137-1 $2.00

Once a Veteran. This important handbook for veterans contains the most recent compilation of veterans' benefits and rights. It discusses the GI Bill, how to apply for hospital and medical benefits for yourself and your family, how to apply for VA loans, and which government and non-government agencies to go to for assistance. It also includes information on collecting disability benefits, correcting your military records, survivors' benefits, and more. Rev 1978. 47 p.
S/N 008-001-00107-0 $1.80

Survivor Benefit Plan for the Uniformed Services. The Survivor Benefit Plan assures financial protection for survivors of retired uniformed services members. This booklet describes the plan, tells who is eligible to participate, and answers important questions about the plan. Rev 1979. 16 p. il.
S/N 008-040-00083-4 $1.25

Where to Write for Records, United States and Outlying Areas. The following three books contain the addresses, costs, and pertinent information necessary to secure personal records.

Marriage Records. 1980. 7 p.
S/N 017-022-00692-8 $1.25

Divorce Records. 1980. 6 p.
S/N 017-022-00690-1 $1.25

Birth and Death Records. 1980. 8 p.
S/N 017-022-00691-0 $1.25

Guide to Genealogical Records in the National Archives. This handbook describes in detail the many groups of records in the National Archives that are most valuable for genealogical research: population and mortality census schedules, passenger arrival lists, US military records, naturalization records, and more. 1964, rep 1979. 145 p.
S/N 022-002-00016-3 $2.50

Guide to Record Retention Requirements, 1980. This useful reference tool is designed to assist businessmen and the general public with recordkeeping. It contains more than 1000 digests which outline the retention periods for the many types of records required to be kept by Federal laws. 1980. 118 p.
S/N 022-003-01050-5 $4.00

A Citizen's Guide on How to Use the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act in Requesting Government Documents. Both the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act provide for access to Government records. This handy booklet tells you which act to use in obtaining documents and how to request records under both acts, including sample letters of request and appeal. 1977. 59 p.
S/N 052-071-00540-4 $3.00

Statistical Abstract of the United States, 1979. More than 1500 tables and charts containing a wealth of data on our economy, public services, training and education programs, hospitals, congressional districts, population and land areas, and much, much more.

*Revised regularly, see page 2

Hardcover Edition. 1979. 1057 p. il.
S/N 003-024-02129-3 Cloth, $12.00

Paperback Edition. 1979. 1057 p. il.
S/N 003-024-02130-7 $9.00

Citizen's Guide to Individual Rights Under the Constitution of the United States of America. This booklet provides a brief explanation of the fundamental interpretations and applications of individual rights protected by the Constitution. 1980. 47 p. il.
S/N 052-070-05355-1 $3.50

Federal Textbooks on Citizenship. These four publications are part of the Justice Department's Becoming a Citizen series. They are intended for use by candidates for naturalization and contain information about US history, American customs, civil rights, and responsibilities of US citizenship.

Book 1: Our American Way of Life. Discusses the early history of the US, explains how our Government works under the Constitution, and helps candidates with the English language. Rev 1980. 105 p. il.
S/N 027-002-00240-7 $4.25

Book 2: Our United States. Can help naturalization candidates learn to read, speak, and write English. Includes basic facts about US history and government, and how citizens can participate in the American way of life. 1973, rep 1979. 136 p. il.
S/N 027-002-00135-4 $4.75

Book 3: Our Government. Designed to help the immigrant become a useful citizen. Includes information on becoming a US citizen and teaches newcomers how they can best serve their new country. 1973, rep 1979. 137 p. il.
S/N 027-002-00136-2 $3.50

Books 1-2-3, Teacher's Guide. Contains suggestions and directions for conducting citizenship classes using the Becoming a Citizen series of textbooks. 1971, rep 1976. 23 p.
S/N 027-002-00100-1 $1.00

English and State Government. Contains home study material for the use of candidates for naturalization who speak English but who have little or no skill in reading. Using the material contained in this book, the person who is unable to attend public school classes may learn to read and write with a limited amount of help provided by a member of his family or a neighbor. 1973, rep 1978. 121 p. il.
S/N 027-002-00137-1 $3.00

Women in Midlife—Security and Fulfillment. This committee print is a valuable resource for the development of fresh and better solutions to the myriad problems experienced by American women in the middle and later stages of life. 1978. 333 p.
S/N 052-070-04838-7 $4.25

Crime Prevention Handbook for Senior Citizens. Crimes of burglary, robbery, and fraud pose special hardships for the elderly and those who are living on fixed incomes. This useful publication can help you assess your vulnerability to these crimes and contains ideas to safeguard your home. 1977. 53 p. il.
S/N 027-000-00589-6 $2.10

Dietary Goals for the United States. This booklet examines current trends in our national diet and sets forth seven basic goals for the development of healthier eating habits. Each goal is carefully explained to help consumers translate it into better choices at the grocery store. 1977. 83 p. il.
S/N 052-070-04376-8 $2.30

Our American Government: What Is It? How Does It Function? 150 Questions and Answers. A clear, concise synopsis of our US Government is presented in an easy-to-follow, question-and-answer format. Covered topics include: democracy and its American sources, the Constitution, the electoral process, the Congress, the executive, the judiciary, and more. 1978. 44 p.
S/N 052-071-00548-0 $1.50

 United States Government Manual, 1980–1981. This new edition of the Government Manual is designed to help you untangle the intricacies of dealing with the Federal Government. It includes helpful information on employment, contracting with the Federal Government, environmental programs, small business opportunities, publications, speakers, films available to civic and educational groups, and much more. 1980. 914 p.
S/N 022-003-01052-1 $8.50

The Federal Register: What It Is and How to Use It. The Federal Register system provides a uniform procedure for filing, publishing, and codifying Government documents. This handbook explains the organization of the system, the procedures which result in the publication of the Federal Register, and the best way to find what you're looking for in the Register and the Code of Federal Regulations. 1980. 136 p.
S/N 022-003-01041-6 $3.50

Congressional Directory 1979. The Congressional Directory contains the names of Senators and Representatives listed by State, in alphabetical order by name and by term of service. All Federal Government agencies are included, with addresses, telephone numbers, and names and titles of directors. The Directory is available in paperbound and clothbound editions, as well as a clothbound edition with a convenient thumb index.

Paperbound Edition. 1979. 1108 p. il.
S/N 052-070-04809-3 $7.25

Clothbound Edition. 1979. 1108 p. il.
S/N 052-070-04810-7 Cloth, $9.25

Clothbound with Thumb-Index. 1979. 1108 p. il.
S/N 052-070-04811-5 Cloth, $13.00

Our Government and Our History

The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States of America. Included in this booklet are notes on the Declaration, and amendments (both approved and those pending approval) to the Constitution, in addition to the compete texts of the two documents. 1979. 56 p.
S/N 052-071-00596-0 $2.00

The Constitution of the United States of America. This booklet sets forth the text of the Constitution with all 26 amendments, together with ratification notes and a brief historical note. 1977. 73 p.
S/N 052-071-00545-5 $2.25

The Constitution of the United States of America, Analysis and Interpretation: Annotations of Cases Decided by the Supreme Court of the United States to June 29, 1972. Contains the text of the Constitution, including amendments and annotations through June, 1972. Rev 1973. 1961 p.
S/N 052-071-00308-8 Cloth, $23.60

The Constitution of the United States of America: Analysis and Interpretation, 1978 Supplement. Includes annotations of cases decided by the US Supreme Court to July 3, 1978. 1979. 318 p.
S/N 052-071-00603-6 $6.00

We the People; the American People and Their Government. This publication presents in book form the contents of an exhibit at the Smithsonian Institution, using an almost endless variety of illustrations to dramatize the changes that have taken place in American life during our 200 years. Illustrations include historic documents, photographs, cartoons, posters, paintings, engravings, headlines, and much more. 1975. 162 p. il.
S/N 047-001-00118-4 $7.25

Documents of Democracy. This large, illustrated folder contains the complete text of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. 1975. 8 p. il.
S/N 040-000-00329-1 $1.00

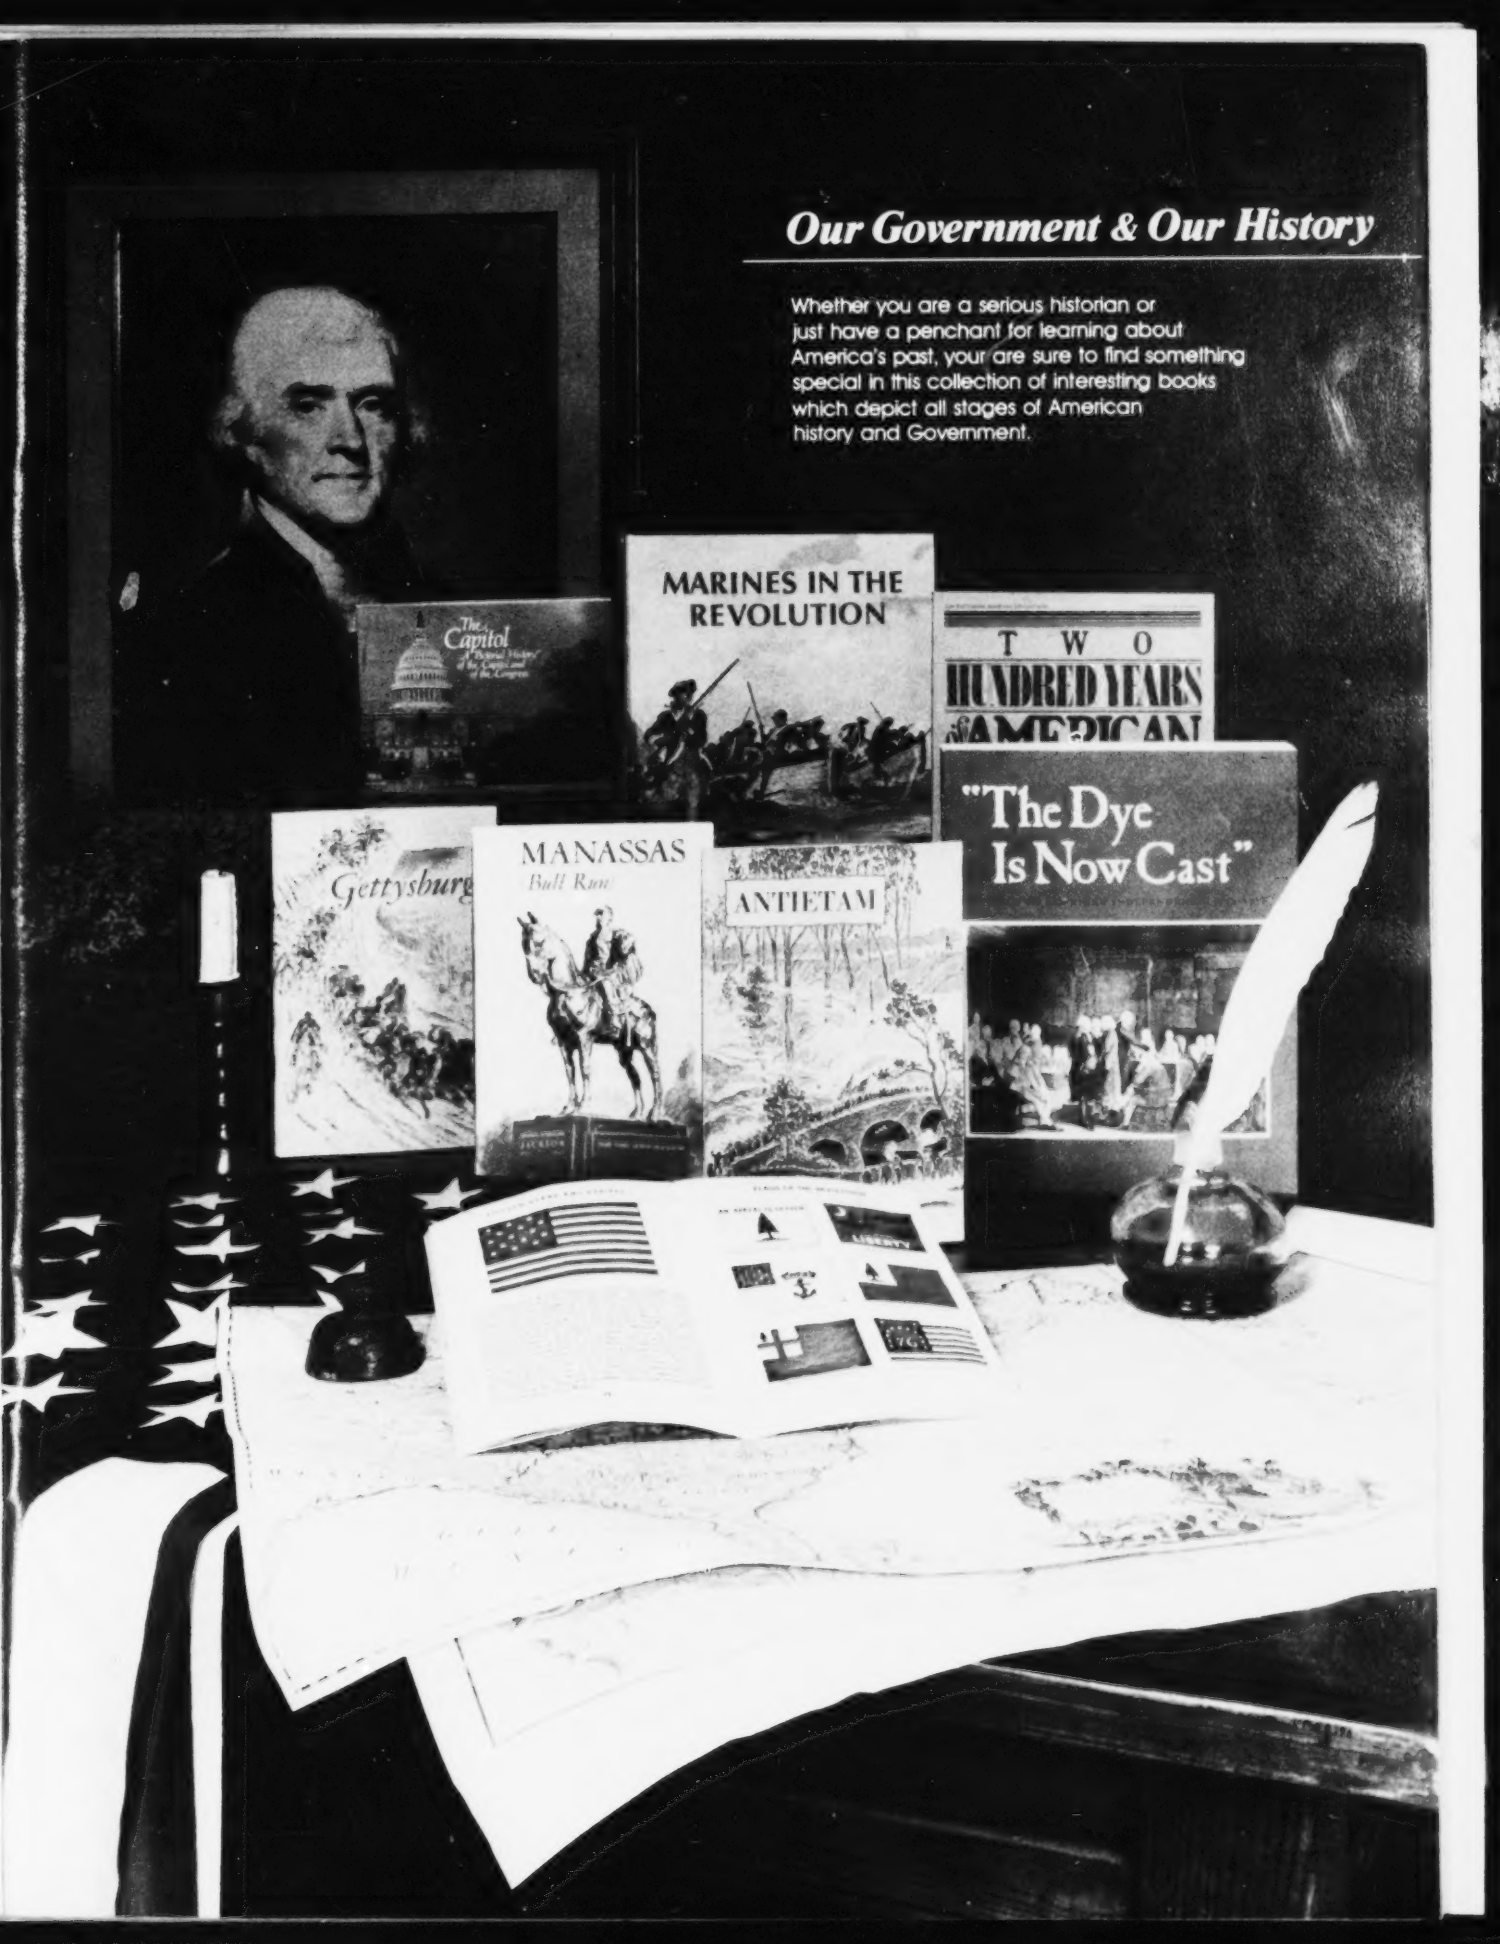
*Revised regularly, see page 2



Our Government & Our History
Whether you are a serious historian or just have a penchant for learning about America's past, your are sure to find something special in this collection of interesting books which depict all stages of American history and Government.
The Capitol
MARINES IN THE REVOLUTION
T W O
HUNDRED YEARS
"The Dye Is Now Cast" Gettysburg
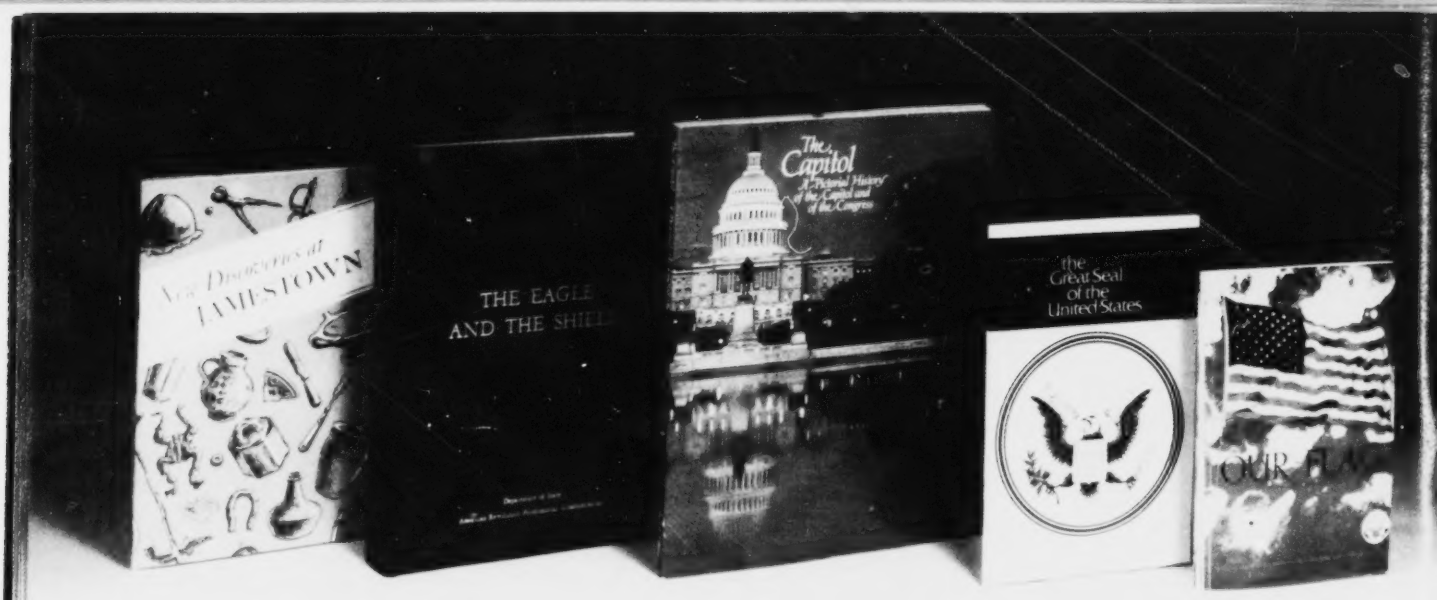
MANASSAS
Bull Run
ANTIETAM



The Capitol: A Pictorial History of the Capitol and the Congress. Few buildings are as instantly recognizable as the US Capitol. Since its first occupants arrived in 1800, it has amassed an impressive and fascinating history. The Capitol provides a pictorial and narrative history of the Capitol building and the Congresses that served there. Included are sections devoted to the Architect of the Capitol, the Speaker of the House, House leadership, pages of the US Congress, the Senate, elected officers of the Senate, a profile of the 96th Congress, women in American politics, and much more. Lavishly illustrated in full color, The Capitol is crammed with interesting and sometimes little-known information about this national landmark and its past and present inhabitants. 1979. 192 p. il.
S/N 052-071-00549-8 $4.25

Our Flag. The flag symbolizes our Nation's history and its future and represents the continuing ideals of American life. This booklet describes the history of the flag and sets forth the observances appropriate to its display. 1976. 34 p. il.
S/N 052-071-00476-9 $1.50

The Great Seal of the US. This is an illustrated pamphlet summarizing the history of the Great Seal by recounting the story of its design, discussing its meaning, and listing its uses. 1980. 16 p. il.
S/N 044-000-01796-2 $2.00

The Eagle and the Shield. An illustrated history of the Great Seal of the United States. 1976. 637 p. il.
S/N 044-000-01543-9 Cloth, $12.00

The Inaugural Address of John Fitzgerald Kennedy. This attractive poster presents the text of President Kennedy's inaugural address and contains a small photograph of his face. Salient points of the speech are printed in red and the poster is outlined with a gray border. Poster is shipped flat. 1964, rep 1979. Poster, 20 x 15 inches, il.
S/N 052-071-00010-1 $1.80

Boundaries of the United States and the Several States. This book describes the boundaries of the 50 States and the US as a whole. Includes histories and clarifications of those boundaries, plus chapters on the acquisition of territories, interests of the United States beyond its borders, and changes made in the public domain since the original 13 colonies. 1976. 191 p. il.
S/N 024-001-02758-5 $5.20

New Discoveries at Jamestown. This study of the Jamestown, Virginia settlement of 1607 chronicles the daily life of America's early settlers as revealed by the objects they left behind. Almost every page has a picture or sketch of an artifact, and an accompanying text tells how each item was used by our forefathers. There is much interesting information about houses, furniture, clothing, articles of worship, games, travel, and more. 1957, rep 1977. 99 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00114-0 $1.75

Documents Illustrative of the Formation of the Union of the American States. Contains the most significant documents surrounding the development of the United States and the unfolding of our constitutional history. Includes the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation, the Constitution, notes and papers of such well known figures in American history as Alexander Hamilton and James Madison, and many of the resolutions, declarations, reports, etc, that played a part in the preparation of these documents and the formation of our country. 1927, rep 1976. 1115 p.
S/N 052-071-00001-1 Cloth, $16.70

Signers of the Declaration. This book illuminates the roles of those who wrote and signed the Declaration of Independence. It sets the historical background of the era, provides biographical sketches of the signers, and visits the places made sacred to all Americans by their courageous deed. 1975. 310 p. il.

S/N 024-005-00593-5 Cloth, $6.85

Signers of the Constitution. This book details the events surrounding the creation of the US Constitution, recounting the careers and lifestyles of the founding fathers and visiting the places they cherished. 1976. 355 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00649-4 Cloth, $6.40

The Dye Is Now Cast; The Road to American Independence, 1774–1776. Reveals the activities of key figures of the American Revolution during the two turbulent years prior to the Declaration of Independence. The accompanying illustrations are taken from an exhibition at the National Portrait Gallery in Washington, DC. 1975. 325 p. il.
S/N 047-001-00121-4 $11.25

Here Was The Revolution. This unique study of the American Revolution combines a historical narrative of the major events that shaped our country with photographs and descriptions of 141 historic sites and buildings associated with the Revolution. Many of the sites and buildings are open to the public, and each description includes the location of the landmark, in addition to reproductions of dozens of historically significant documents and paintings. 1977. 324 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00608-7 Cloth, $6.20

The American Revolution; 1775–1783, Atlas of 18th Century Maps and Charts. This unique atlas of Revolutionary Era maps consists of 20 handsome 18 x 23 inch reproductions of maps and charts which were available to the participants of the Revolutionary War. These maps show the dependence of the colonies on the sea and highlight the effect on the course of the War of such waters as the Chesapeake Bay, the Delaware River, the Hudson River, and Narragansett Bay. 1972. 20 maps.
S/N 008-046-00043-3 $12.00

Marines in the Revolution: A History of the Continental Marines in the American Revolution. This profusely illustrated book includes the history of the Marines during the Revolutionary War, personal journals and diaries of Marines of that era, and maps which help depict battles such as those of Whithaven, Lake Champlain, and Princeton. 1975. 516 p. il.
S/N 008-055-00083-1 Cloth, $16.00

Yorktown, Climax of the Revolution. Portrays the crowning campaign of the American Revolution in the language of the participants. 1943, rep 1976. 26 p.
S/N 024-005-00155-7 $1.00

Letters of Delegates to Congress, 1774–1789. This series provides, in chronological order, the pertinent documents and letters of the delegates to the first Congresses. For the most part, the documents included are those written while the delegates were serving in Congress, but insofar as they portray the larger beliefs and activities of the individual delegates, letters written between sessions and personal material in private communications have also been included.

Volume 1; August 1774–August 1775. Contains 678 documents representing the work of 64 different delegates from the First and Second Continental Congresses, including many writings from the pens of two of the most famous men of the prerevolutionary era—John Dickinson and Benjamin Franklin. 1976. 751 p. il.
S/N 030-000-00076-5 Cloth, $8.50

Volume 2; September–December 1775. Spanning the Third Congress, this volume focuses on the concrete military and naval measures Congress undertook during the Autumn of 1775 to cope with the forces Britain was marshalling against America. Contains 538 documents. 1977. 585 p. il.
S/N 030-000-00077-3 Cloth, $9.00

Volume 3; January 1–May 15, 1776. 1978. 735 p. il.
S/N 030-000-00083-8 Cloth, $10.25

Volume 4; May 16–August 15, 1776. 1979. 739 p. il.
S/N 030-000-00103-6 Cloth, $11.25

Letters From a Distinguished American: Twelve Essays by John Adams on American Foreign Policy, 1780. The letters in this volume were discovered in the course of sampling the Library of Congress' collections of foreign newspapers published during the American Revolution. The letters were serialized in the General Advertiser and Morning Intelligencer of London and attributed only to "A Distinguished American." Posed as an answer to an anti-revolutionary pamphlet circulated in England, these hitherto unknown and never reprinted letters by John Adams present a forceful and penetrating examination of the issues surrounding the revolutionary struggle. 1978. 66 p. il.
S/N 030-000-00095-1 Cloth, $3.75

Abraham Lincoln, From His Own Words and Contemporary Accounts. Significant passages of Lincoln's letters, speeches, and state documents are brought together in this book with firsthand observations and appraisals of the man by his contemporaries. Handsomely illustrated with period photographs, works of art, and reproductions of documents. Rep 1977. 55 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00156-5 $2.75

Ford's Theatre and the House Where Lincoln Died. An engrossing account of the last day in Abraham Lincoln's life, including pictures and profiles of his assassins. Includes a biography of the President, a brief history of Ford's Theatre, and descriptions of the house where Lincoln died and the Lincoln Museum. 1969, rep 1977. 43 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00226-0 $2.00

Civil War Battlefield Historical Handbooks. These four volumes of the National Park Service Historical Handbook series deal with the action that raged over Civil War battlefields that are now a part of our National Park System. Illustrated with many period paintings, drawings, and photographs, these booklets describe the preliminaries to the battles and campaigns; sketch the characters of the commanding officers; set the geography and demography of the areas; and move from one point of interest to another through a complete recounting of the battles. Each booklet is completed by maps, guides to the area, and directions to the park, making them valuable battlefield tour companions as well as exciting armchair adventures.

Fort Sumter. 1963, rep 1974. 47 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00163-8 $2.25

Antietam. Rev 1961. 60 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00180-8 $1.00

Gettysburg. 1962, rep 1977. 64 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00196-4 $1.00

Manassas (Bull Run). 1957, rep 1977. 48 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00227-8 $1.00

Andersonville, the Story of a Civil War Prison Camp. This booklet tells the story of Andersonville prison camp, which was constructed in Georgia by the Confederate Army during the latter part of the Civil War. In one year, more than 12,000 prisoners perished at Andersonville from disease, malnutrition, overcrowding, and exposure. 1972. 20 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00493-9 $1.00

Handbook of North American Indians, Volume 8; California. Contains 72 chapters by 47 outstanding authorities on the Indian cultures of the California region. A chapter is devoted to each of the 60 or so tribes native to the area that now includes most of California State and parts of Oregon and Mexico. There are also chapters on the languages of the California Indians, their long prehistory, and their stormy history. 1978. 800 p. il.
S/N 047-000-00347-4 Cloth, $13.50

Handbook of North American Indians, Volume 9: Southwest. Covers the prehistory, general history, and languages of the entire Southwest and the cultures and histories of the Pueblo peoples. Filled with many interesting photographs and drawings, this volume of the Handbook focuses on the tenacity with which these Southwestern tribes have held on to their homelands, religions, languages, social institutions, and aesthetic traditions. 1979. 701 p. il.

S/N 047-000-00361-0 Cloth, $17.00

Handbook of North American Indians, Volume 15; Northeast. This volume concentrates on the tribes that inhabited the territory bounded by the ocean on the east, Illinois on the west, North Carolina on the south, and Newfoundland on the north. In addition to the 42 chapters devoted to the individual tribes of the region, separate sections summarize the general prehistory of the region; Iroquoian cultural patterns and early contacts with Europeans; the Longhouse religion; the Six Nations of the Grand River; Great Lakes-riverine languages, sociopolitical organization, and history; and more. 1978. 924 p. il.
S/N 047-000-00351-2 Cloth, $14.50

Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of North America. This beautifully illustrated volume details the history of the bark canoes and skin boats used by the Indians and early settlers of North America, as well as the skin boats and kayaks used by Eskimos. 1964, rep 1978. 242 p. il.
S/N 047-001-00021-8 Cloth, $8.00

National Survey of Historic Sites and Buildings. This series recounts the saga of America's founding, settling, and growth through the stories of the structures and places that either played a part in our history or gained significance because of it. Each volume is divided into two parts. The first part consists of an illustrated chronicle of the period under examination. The second describes all of the historic sites and buildings associated with that era, usually including illustrations and discussions of their architecture and present condition, as well as addresses or locations.

Explorers and Settlers. Covers the period of early exploration and the first settlements. 1968, rep 1976. 512 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00006-2 Cloth, $7.60

Colonials and Patriots. Treats the era of the budding Revolution and follows through its triumph (1700-1783). 1964, rep 1973. 286 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00007-1 Cloth, $5.55

Prospector, Cowhand, and Sodbuster. Covers the period of the settling of the American West (1803-1853). 1967, rep 1969. 320 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00005-4 Cloth, $8.50

The Presidents. Discusses the concept and development of the Presidency, summarizes the lives and administrations of the Presidents through Jimmy Carter, and surveys the historic sites and buildings associated with them. 1977. 606 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00683-4 Cloth, $8.00

Franklin D. Roosevelt and Hyde Park: Personal Recollections of Eleanor Roosevelt. Before his death, Franklin Roosevelt began an account of the history of his family estate, Hyde Park. The few notes he was able to make have been included in this booklet with his wife's memories of the estate and Mr. Roosevelt's life there. Also included are various photographs of members of the Roosevelt family and the interior and exterior of the house. 1950, rep 1977. 18 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00014-3 $1.75

Fifty American Faces: From the Collection of the National Portrait Gallery. A lively gathering of 50 portraits from the permanent collection of the National Portrait Gallery, which depict men and women who have made significant contributions to the American way of life. In addition to painted portraiture, this concise study of the American character embraces all the major media (except film) including photography, the life mask, caricature, and folk art. 1978. 256 p. il.
S/N 047-006-00017-1 $9.25

Medal of Honor Recipients 1863–1978. This book records the names and deeds of persons awarded the Medal of Honor. Citations of award are arranged by war, campaign, conflict, or era and contain fascinating accounts of unbelievable bravery and heroism. The history of the medal and a summary of the laws governing its use are also provided. 1973, rev 1979. 1113 p.
S/N 052-070-04866-2 $8.50

Biographical Directory of the American Congress, 1774–1971. This unique collection of reference material contains biographies and data on every person who served in Congress between 1774 and 1971, a total of more than 10,800 individual biographies. 1971, rep 1977. 1972 p.
S/N 052-071-00249-9 Cloth, $33.65

Librarians of Congress, 1802–1974. The Library of Congress was created in 1800 by an Act of Congress, and in the intervening 178 years there have been only 12 Librarians of Congress. Among them have been politicians, businessmen, newspapermen, a poet (Archibald MacLeish), lawyers, and even one professional librarian! This handsomely bound book discusses the lives and careers of the first 11 Librarians. 1977. 273 p. il.
S/N 030-001-00080-0 Cloth, $7.75

Historical Statistics of the United States; Colonial Times to 1970. A massive, two-volume collection of statistics on almost every aspect of American life from the colonial era to 1970, this publication contains statistical information on population, national income and wealth, transportation, energy, agriculture, health and medical care, and consumer income and expenditures. Two volumes, sold as a set only. 1976. 1300 p.
S/N 003-024-00120-9 Cloth, $26.00

Two Hundred Years of American Criminal Justice. This heavily illustrated book from the US Department of Justice traces the evolution and history of the American criminal justice system from colonial times to the present. It touches on the lives of many well-known criminal figures—both famous and infamous—such as Bonnie and Clyde, Butch Cassidy, and Wild Bill Hickok and discusses the development of our police, courts, corrections system, juvenile justice and delinquency prevention programs, and much more. 1977. 176 p. il.
S/N 027-000-00414-8 $3.00

200 Years of American Worklife. This is a collection of articles first published in Worklife magazine in 1976. It describes the progress of American workers from colonial days to the present and projects worklife trends over the next 100 years. Includes many fascinating photographs and illustrations from each historical era. 1977, rep 1979. 192 p. il.
S/N 029-000-00293-2 $7.00

A Nation of Learners. A mosaic of nostalgic art and photographs illustrates this collection of articles that pay tribute to the progress of education in America. Treating topics as diverse as universal education, schooling in the new world, tomorrow's education, arts in the schools and lifelong learning, this large-format volume combines the efforts of over two dozen authors, and graphically displays the continuing responsiveness of education to the needs of the American people.

Clothbound Edition. 1976. 185 p. il.
S/N 017-080-01541-2 Cloth, $5.95

Paperbound Edition. 1976. 185 p. il.
S/N 017-080-01540-4 $4.05

Progress in Aircraft Design Since 1903. Gathering photos and performance/production statistics for 90 of the most historically interesting aircraft ever produced, this book illustrates the development of aircraft design from the original Wright Flyer to the McDonnell-Douglass F-15 Eagle. 1974, rep 1978. 96 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00587-3 $3.75

The Wright Brothers' Engines and Their Design. A noted aircraft engine designer analyzes the engine that powered the Wright Kitty Hawk Flyer, the world's first practical airplane. The author details the problems the Wrights faced in their unprecedented undertaking and discusses the successes they achieved in designing and building this and later models. 1971, rep 1978. 71 p. il.
S/N 047-005-00007-8 $2.20

The First Nonstop Coast-to-Coast Flight and the Historic T-2 Airplane. Tells the story of the first non-stop coast-to-coast flight by two young US Army pilots in 1923. 1964, rep 1978. 90 p. il.
S/N 047-005-00001-9 $3.00

Wiley Post, His Winnie Mae, and the World's First Pressure Suit. This beautiful book recounts the story of Wiley Post, his round-the-world flights, his beloved Lockheed Vega, the Winnie Mae, and his pressure suit, which was the world's first practical flight-pressure suit. It is copiously illustrated with period photographs. 1971, rep 1978. 127 p. il.
S/N 047-005-00008-6 $3.25

Business and Industry

US Industrial Outlook, 1980. This is the latest edition of this important annual publication from the Department of Commerce. It contains basic information about business in America, including industry-by-industry analyses which discuss exports and imports, current and predicted industry and product shipments, changes in supply and demand, developments in domestic and overseas markets, technological advances, and more. 1980. 517 p.
S/N 003-008-00181-5 $8.50

Doing Business With the Federal Government. Any business, big or small, seeking to expand its scope of operations and profits should explore the possibilities of doing business with the Government. This booklet explains the general principles and procedures of Federal business operations to help interested firms learn where in the Government structure to market their products, how to make their products known, how and where to obtain the necessary forms, and how to bid on contracts. Also described are the Government's surplus property sales and GSA's Business Service Center program, through which a firm can obtain advice from trained counselors, information on contract opportunities throughout the Government, and step-by-step help with contracting problems. 1978. 45 p. il.
S/N 022-000-00172-8 $1.80

Selling to the United States Government. This booklet is the small businessman's key to Government contracting. It discusses basic information needed in selling to the US Government and describes ways the Small Business Administration helps small businesses over contracting roadblocks. 1978, rep 1979. 20 p. il.
S/N 045-000-00160-1 $1.50

US Government Purchasing and Sales Directory. A helpful directory for small businessmen who want to do business with the Federal Government. Provides alphabetical listings of the products and services bought by the military departments and by the civilian agencies. Also describes research and development contracting opportunities. 1977, rep 1979. 204 p.
S/N 045-000-00153-9 $5.50

Export Marketing for Smaller Firms. If your firm is considering exporting for the first time, this book can help you decide whether foreign markets warrant an investment of your company's resources. It can provide you with a step-by-step approach for selecting the most suitable markets for trade and includes information on how to price and promote products for export sales, how to estimate the number of buyers in a foreign market, how to evaluate the competitive scene, how to select a foreign representative, where to get assistance in selecting markets, and much more. Rev 1979. 84 p.
S/N 045-000-00158-0 $2.20

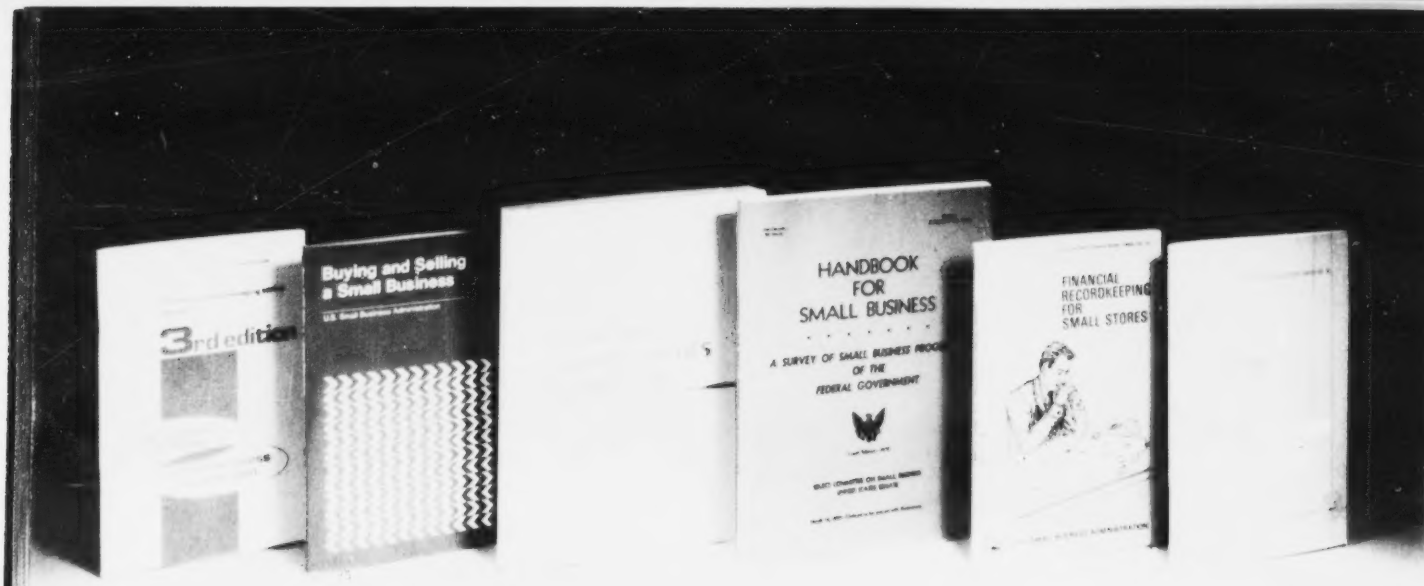
*Revised regularly, see page 2



Buying and Selling a Small Business
3rd edition
HANDBOOK FOR SMALL BUSINESS
A SURVEY OF SMALL BUSINESS AIDS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT FINANCIAL RECORDKEEPING FOR SMALL STORES

Franchise Index/Profile. Franchising could provide just the opportunity you need to open your own business. This publication is intended for the person who is exploring the possibility of investing in one of the many franchise opportunities available today. It presents an index of information needed to evaluate a particular franchise and decide whether it is the right one to invest in. 1973, rep 1978. 56 p.
S/N 045-000-00125-3 $2.00

 Franchise Opportunities Handbook. Franchising continues to be one of the most rapidly growing forms of business because it offers a means for individuals with limited capital and experience to operate their own businesses. This handbook identifies hundreds of companies in various industries who will grant franchises to qualified applicants. There are listings of franchisors in such areas as restaurants, clothing, motels, construction, employment services, business services, automotive products, and others. In addition to giving each franchisor's name, the Handbook describes the operation; tells the amount of equity capital, if any, an applicant will need; and summarizes the financial assistance and training provided by the franchisor. 1980.
S/N 003-009-00335-1 $8.50

Starting and Managing a Small Business of Your Own. Reading this "how-to" guidebook will give you an idea of the benefits and disadvantages of "being your own boss." All the basics you'll need to consider in starting a business are discussed; choice of business, chances of success, buying a going business, investing in a franchise, and special requirements for a small business. 1973, rep 1979. 95 p. il.
S/N 045-000-00123-7 $3.50

Buying and Selling a Small Business. This book is an excellent guide to areas every potential small businessowner should investigate before investing. The book reveals what buyers and sellers of small businesses should know before making a buy-sell decision, where to find such information, how to correlate and interpret the data collected, and how to apply what is learned to negotiating a transaction. 1979. 128 p.
S/N 045-000-00164-4 $3.50

Financial Recordkeeping for Small Stores. This book presents a basic recordkeeping system primarily for the small store owner-manager or prospective owner whose business does not justify hiring a trained, full-time bookkeeper. When tailored to fit your business, the system will maintain a record of all transactions of the business; protect the assets of the business from errors, fraud, and carelessness; and provide a basis for business planning by showing the results of past decisions and furnishing the facts needed for future decisions. 1976, rep 1978. 135 p.
S/N 045-000-00142-3 $4.00

The Handbook for Small Business. The services needed by small firms are available from a wide variety of Government departments, agencies, and independent offices. The Handbook for Small Business contains information on programs and services offered to the small businessman by 25 Federal departments and agencies that are directly involved with the support and stimulation of independent enterprise. It includes information on Government-sponsored loans and financial guarantees, management and technical assistance programs, Government purchasing and sales programs, grants, and entering the world trade markets. 1979. 236 p.
S/N 052-071-00600-1 $5.50

Military and Aviation

American Military History. In this well-researched book, a team of military historians has traced the development of the American Army and its impact on history in times of peace as well as war. Beginning with our European heritage, it covers the Revolutionary War, the War of 1812, the Civil War, the Indian campaigns, the Spanish-American War, and especially the US involvement in the World Wars. The post-war years, the European occupation, the Korean conflict, and the early years of our Vietnam involvement are also outlined. 1973. 720 p. il.

*Revised regularly, see page 2

S/N 008-029-00089-0 Cloth, $16.00

A Guide to the Study and Use of Military History. The study of military history involves more than battlefield strategies and the mechanics of combat. This book from the Army's Center of Military History encourages this broader approach to military history. It is composed of essays written by military specialists and explores the nature of military history, the value of studying it, and the literature available on various periods and topics. 1979. 524 p. il.
S/N 008-029-00105-5 $6.50

The American Soldier. Four sets of full-color reproductions of paintings by H. Charles McBarron, dean of American military artists. This series depicts the American fighting man at various periods in our history. Each set of reproductions consists of 10 pictures, measuring 9 x 10½ inches.

Set No. 1. Covers the years 1781–1855. 1964, rep 1975.
S/N 008-020-00226-7 $3.50

Set No. 2. Covers the years 1863–1963. 1965, rep 1975.
S/N 008-020-00227-5 $3.50

Set No. 3. Spans the period 1775–1965 and is intended to stand as a complete set by itself or to fill gaps in the coverage of the first two sets. 1969, rep 1975.
S/N 008-020-00225-9 $3.50

Set No. 4. Portrays a number of Army activities in support of the Nation's peacetime progress, covering the years 1776–1975. 1980.
S/N 008-020-00760-9 $3.50

The Continental Soldier. This handsome, 29 x 39 inch poster describes the life of the soldier, Continental artillery, Continental dragoons, how the infantry fought, and much more. The major battles of the Continental Army are listed in chronological order, and a special inset describes the siege of Yorktown where the Continental Army, under the leadership of General George Washington, finally brought the British forces under General Cornwallis to surrender. With its interesting combination of photographs, drawings, and text, this colorful poster is ideal for display in your home or for giving to your favorite history buff. 1976. Poster.
S/N 024-005-00622-2 $3.75

Artillery Through the Ages. Traces the history of the cannon from the ancient catapults and bombards up to our Civil War artillery 1949, rep 1978. 92 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00159-0 $1.90

Mounted Combat in Vietnam. An accounting of the leadership of the tank crewmen, mechanized infantrymen, armored cavalrymen, and air cavalrymen who participated in some of the more significant events of the Vietnam war. Many photographs, drawings, and maps illustrate this fascinating chronicle. 1978. 250 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00747-1 $6.00

The Battle for Khe Sahn. The battle for Khe Sahn stands as one of the most crucial and bitterly contested struggles of the Vietnam war. This book provides insight into the mechanics of this epic 77-day siege, providing details that encompass the highest echelon of command as well as the smallest unit. In addition, appropriate coverage is provided to the supporting arms and the mammoth logistics effort which kept the defenders supplied while under fire. Many combat photographs made during the battle illustrate the narrative. 1969, rep 1977. 203 p. il.
S/N 008-055-00114-5 $4.00

AIR POWER in THREE WARS
The birth of aviation was thrust on an unbelieving and skeptical world. A skepticism that was to pre-
USAF Historical Aircraft

Mud & Guts: A Look at the Common Soldier of the American Revolution. Bill Mauldin's cartoon study of the common foot soldier of the Revolutionary War. Mud & Guts presents a charming and educational look at the day-to-day gallantries and unpleasantness of life in the trenches, with humor written into every page and drawn into every cartoon. 1978. 58 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00703-2 $2.20

Aces and Aerial Victories; the US Air Force in Southeast Asia, 1965-1973. Harkening back to the days when dogfights were a basic component of aerial warfare, Aces and Aerial Victories pays tribute to the courage and skill displayed by American airmen in the skies over Southeast Asia. Three Air Force flyers joined the ranks of American aces during the war and this heavily illustrated volume collects the first-hand accounts of their cannon and missile battles as they occurred. These narratives are taken directly from aircrew after-action reports and clearly portray the skill and bravery required under the demanding circumstances of modern air warfare. 1976, rep 1978. 188 p. il.
S/N 008-070-00365-1 $6.00

Air Power in Three Wars (WW II, Korea, Vietnam). Records Gen William W Momyer's perceptions of air power based on his experience as a career airman. His central concern is to elucidate those areas that were his major preoccupations as a senior commander; strategy, command and control, counter air operations, interdiction, and close air support. Special emphasis is derived from the periods in which Momyer served as Commander of the 7th Air Force in Vietnam. 1978. 358 p. il.
S/N 008-070-00415-1 $6.00

USAF Historical Aircraft Photopaks. The following two publications consist of photos of aircraft that have made significant contributions to the growth of the US Air Force. Each set features 45 separate 8 x 10 inch prints.

Photopak One. Picks up coverage at the advent of the jet age and follows through the modern era. A representative sampling of Air Force missiles and helicopters completes the picture of today's Air Force. 1977. 45 photoprints.
S/N 008-070-00405-4 $4.25

Photopak Two. Represents the development of air power from the first air machine purchased by the military to the first Air Force jet. Rev 1977. 45 photoprints.
S/N 008-070-00305-8 $4.35

Encyclopedia of US Air Force Aircraft and Missile Systems—Volume 1, Post-World War II Fighters, 1945-1973. Deals with the development, deployment, and operations of fighter aircraft between 1945 and 1973, commencing with the F-80 Shooting Star and ending with the development of the F-15 Eagle. 1978. 358 p. il.
S/N 008-070-00411-9 Cloth, $7.25

Japan's World War II Balloon Bomb Attacks on North America. This is the most complete account ever published of one of the most bizarre and obscure chapters in modern warfare. The almost unknown story of Japan's balloon bomb attacks, which resulted in the only enemy-caused deaths on the American continent during World War II, is told fully and graphically. 1973, rep 1978. 85 p. il.
S/N 047-005-00009-4 $2.75

The "MAGIC" Background of Pearl Harbor. "MAGIC" was the designation US cryptanalysts gave to the top secret and highly guarded Japanese diplomatic transmissions they intercepted and decoded. This eight-volume study releases a wealth of formerly classified information about the communications intelligence background of the Pearl Harbor disaster. Five of the volumes contain a narrative based on the intercepted messages and three appendix volumes contain the actual decoded messages. Sold only as a set. 1978. 8 vols, 3126 p.
S/N 008-000-00233-9 Cloth, $36.00

Military and Aviation
A feast for students of military & aviation history. We offer publications ranging from a poster that features the Continental Soldier to a chronicle of today's armored cavalrymen.
THE BATTLE FOR KHE SANH
VIETNAM STUDIES
MOUNTED COMBAT IN VIETNAM DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY aces aerial victories
A Guide to the Study and Use of Military History

The Effects of Nuclear Weapons. This report is a comprehensive and somewhat technical analysis of the effect of a nuclear blast on exposed persons and surrounding terrain, buildings, vehicles, bridges, utility poles, water mains, manufacturing equipment, cloth, etc at varying proximities. The data is drawn from the experience of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, as well as from a variety of test blasts. 1977. 653 p. il.
S/N 008-046-00093-0 Cloth, $7.00

Publications of the US Army Center of Military History. Lists and describes those works that have been published by the US Army Center of Military History and are still available for purchase. 1979. 39 p.
S/N 008-029-00111-0 $2.00

International Topics

Foreign Area Studies. The following six books are part of the highly regarded Department of the Army Foreign Area Studies series. Each book deals with a particular foreign country, describing and analyzing its economic, military, political, and social systems and institutions and ways that they are shaped by cultural factors. Origins and traditions of the people and their social and national attitudes are featured.

Area Handbook for Japan. 1974. 672 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00520-7 Cloth, $13.00

Area Handbook for Saudi Arabia. 1977. 389 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00628-9 Cloth, $9.50

Israel, A Country Study. 1979. 414 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00790-1 Cloth, $9.50

Area Handbook for the People's Republic of China. 1972. 729 p.
S/N 008-020-00418-9 Cloth, $13.00

Area Handbook for South Africa. 1971, rep 1979. 845 p.
S/N 008-020-00308-5 Cloth, $12.00

Area Handbook for the Soviet Union. 1971, rep 1979. 828 p.
S/N 008-020-00335-2 Cloth, $12.25

CIA Maps. Prepared by the CIA, the following four maps show international boundaries, armistice lines, capitals, ports, airfields, railroads, and roads and graphically characterize population patterns, centers of economic activity, land utilization contours, and more.

Greece. 1973. Map.
S/N 041-015-00062-4 $1.50

Israel. 1978. Map.
S/N 041-015-00091-8 $1.25

Mexico. 1978. Map.
S/N 041-015-00100-1 $1.25

USSR. 1974. Map.
S/N 041-015-00096-9 $1.25

Handbook of Economic Statistics: 1978. The Handbook, prepared by the Central Intelligence Agency, presents statistics for selected non-Communist countries and all the Communist countries of the world. Data for 1960, 1965, and 1970-77 are presented in tabular, graph, and map format, including information on foreign trade, agriculture, energy, transportation, minerals and metals, Soviet economic performance, and much more. Volume is thumb-indexed by subject for easy reference. 1978. 175 p.
S/N 041-015-00098-5 $13.00

Vacation and Recreation

You and Your Passport. With a few exceptions, all US citizens need a passport to depart from or enter the US and to enter most foreign countries. This handy guide to passport rules and regulations provides information on the following: how to obtain a passport, when you can apply by mail, vaccinations necessary for travel abroad, lost or stolen passports, and much more. 1978. 16 p. il.
S/N 044-000-01702-4 $1.10

Your Trip Abroad. If you are one of the millions of Americans who will travel abroad this year, either for pleasure, business, or study, this brochure can help you to prepare for a trouble-free, rewarding experience. Basic information is provided about passports, visas, vaccinations, customs, money, help from American consuls, legal aid, and much more. 1979. 28 p. il.

S/N 044-000-01726-1 $1.75

Customs Hints for Returning United States Residents: Know Before You Go. Information you should know before going abroad about key US Customs regulations and procedures. 1980. 30 p. il.
S/N 048-002-00083-8 $2.00

Trademark Information for Travelers. Contains guidelines for the traveler for bringing foreign trademark items through Customs. 1978. 21 p.
S/N 048-002-00072-2 $1.10

"The Place Where Hell Bubbled Up," A History of the First National Park. An entertaining and informative text that tells the story of Yellowstone, from its first discovery through its dedication as a National Park in 1872 to the present time. The text is punctuated by many photographs and by frequent excerpts from old, published accounts of visits to Yellowstone. 1972. 68 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00486-6 $1.35

Many-Storied Mountains: The Life of Glacier National Park. One of the loveliest of the many National Park Service publications, Many-Storied Mountains brings to the reader a timeless perspective on the natural history of Glacier National Park, Montana. Dozens of full-color photographs and illustrations depict the spectacular geography of Glacier and the many forms of life that make up its high-rise communities. 1978. 138 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00709-1 $3.50

Wright Brothers National Memorial, NC. This richly illustrated booklet tells the story of Wilbur and Orville Wright, the events leading up to the world's first successful flight of a man-carrying, power-driven, heavier-than-air machine on December 17, 1903 and of their experiences at Kitty Hawk and Kill Devil Hills, North Carolina. 1961, rep 1978. 64 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00183-2 $2.10

Vicksburg National Military Park, Mississippi. Presents the history of the campaign and siege of Vicksburg, the last stronghold on the Mississippi River in Confederate hands in June 1863. 1954, rep 1972. 60 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00228-6 $1.00

National Register of Historic Places, 1976. The following two books list by State and county all properties mentioned in the National Register of Historic Places through 1976. Listings include addresses or routes from the nearest town and brief descriptions of architecture and construction.

Volume One. Listings to December 1974. 1976. 961 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00645-1 Cloth, $13.00

Volume Two. January 1, 1975 through December 31, 1976. 1979. 638 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00747-4 Cloth, $14.00

National Park Guide to the Historic Places of the American Revolution. This popular guide to hundreds of Revolutionary War sites and landmarks in 18 Eastern States describes and locates the major surviving battlefields, monuments, historic houses and buildings, and the memorable art and artifacts of the era. Rep 1975. 137 p. il.
S/N 024-005-00517-0 $3.15

National Parks of the United States, Guide and Map. A colorful map that pinpoints all National Park Service areas which have facilities or accommodations for visitors, with a summary of those facilities on the reverse. 1980. Folder.
S/N 024-005-00771-7 $1.75

Visitor Accommodations, Facilities and Services, 1980–1981. Lists alphabetically by area the overnight lodging accommodations and other facilities and services provided by concessionaires in the National Park System. 1980. 128 p.
S/N 024–005–00777–6 $3.75

Access National Parks: A Guide for Handicapped Visitors. Details information about the accessibility of facilities, services, and interpretive programs in almost 300 areas of the National Park System, including addresses and telephone numbers, average elevations (where altitude is a consideration), availability of first aid and medical services, a description of special programs, wheelchair accessibility data, and more. 1978. 198 p. il.
S/N 024–005–00691–5 $3.50

Camping in the National Park System. For a less expensive vacation next summer, why not try camping? There are 100 campgrounds in the National Park System where, for a small fee, you can fall asleep watching the stars and wake up to a playground as big as all outdoors. This handy folder locates all 100 of these parks on a map of the country and provides valuable trip-planning information for each one. Rev 1980. 25 p. il.
S/N 024–005–00775–0 $2.00

Back-Country Travel in the National Park System. A guide to escaping the machine age into the "back-country" wilderness of our National Parks, including a list of back-country areas and safety and preparation hints. 1975. 40 p. il.
S/N 024–005–00267–7 $1.00

Survival, Evasion, and Escape. If you are a camper, youth leader, or outdoorsman, the information in this book can help you make the most of your surroundings while avoiding dangerous plants and animals. Many colorful illustrations accompany the text which discusses firemaking and cooking, finding water, vegetable food, animal food, and much more. 1969, rep 1976. 431 p. il.
S/N 008–020–00157–1 $6.05

Be Safe From Insects in Recreation Areas. Don't let insects spoil your next hike, picnic, camping trip, or other outdoor activity. In this booklet you'll find advice on purchasing repellents by generic name, a brief discussion on the use of space sprays, and suggestions on protection against particularly troublesome insects. Rev 1978. 7 p.
S/N 001–000–03802–8 $1.00

Outdoors, USA: 1967 Yearbook of Agriculture. Contains articles that cover the full spectrum of outdoor activities and resources in the US, including how-to features on hiking, fishing, camping, water sports, and much more. 1967. 408 p. il.
S/N 001–000–00114–1 Cloth, $6.20

Health and Physical Fitness

An Introduction to Physical Fitness. This handy booklet tells you how to start your personal physical fitness program on the right foot. It is crammed with advice about exercise, weight control, and jogging and includes illustrations and step-by-step directions for 18 popular exercises that will be especially helpful to beginners. 1979. 25 p. il.
S/N 040–000–00403–3 $1.00

Adult Physical Fitness. This booklet gives alternate physical fitness programs for men and women at various levels of capability. Besides programs of general exercise, the book presents exercises in isometrics, water activities, and weight training. 1963, rep 1978. 65 p. il.
S/N 040–000–00026–7 $2.25

Physical Fitness Program. This booklet describes a program developed for US Secret Service personnel, which consists of 19 warm-up, agility, and strength/stamina drills. When used with a group, this program is a convenient way to measure your physical condition in relation to others in the same sex and age category. 1975. 28 p. il.

S/N 048-006-00007-8 $1.30

Exercise and Weight Control. Discusses the relationship between weight control, exercise, and caloric intake, emphasizing the importance of 30–60 minutes of daily exercise for efficient and effective weight loss and general physical fitness. Includes a table of energy expenditure for the entire activity spectrum, expressed in calories used per hour of exercise. 1976. 8 p.
S/N 040-000-00371-1 $1.25

An Introduction to Running: One Step at a Time. If you would like to begin a running program—whether to lose weight, improve your physical condition, or just for fun—this booklet contains some basic facts you should know. It provides tips on running style, warming up and cooling down, where to run, wearing apparel, and much more. Six stretching exercises which should be done before and after running are illustrated. 1980. 16 p. il.
S/N 017-001-00425-1 $1.75

Aqua Dynamics: Physical Conditioning Through Water Exercises. An illustrated series of non-swimming water drills and exercises, arranged into four workout programs with varying degrees of difficulty. 1977. 32 p. il.
S/N 040-000-00360-6 $1.00

Fitness and Work Capacity. Explains how you can measure your physical fitness level and prescribes a safe and practical conditioning program which can become part of your life and help you to meet your personal expectations and the needs of your job. 1977. 81 p. il.
S/N 001-001-00426-0 $2.20

The Fitness Challenge in the Later Years. Contains suggestions to help the elderly take advantage of the added years of life which medical science has made possible and outlines exercise programs to help maintain health and energy. 1968, rep 1979. 28 p. il.
S/N 017-062-00009-3 $1.75

How To Select a Nursing Home. This booklet can help you to select a nursing home that will best fulfill the needs of the prospective patient. It focuses on skilled nursing facilities, but most of the information applies to other nursing homes as well. Part one provides a definition of the various types of nursing homes, tells how they are managed and explains the rights of patients. Part two offers practical advice for choosing a nursing home, such as what to look for when touring the home, costs, food services, medical care, and so on. Part three is a checklist of important points to consider and questions to ask when selecting a nursing home. 1977. 52 p. il.
S/N 017-022-00502-6 $1.00

Up and Around: A Booklet to Aid the Stroke Patient in Activities of Daily Living. This illustrated booklet can help doctors, nurses, therapists, and families teach a stroke patient how to take care of his daily needs. Pictures and text show how the patient performs each activity and how help is given if needed. 1967. 37 p. il.
S/N 017-001-00394-8 $1.45

How to Cope With Arthritis. Describes the different types of arthritis and the symptoms associated with each and discusses various treatments for arthritis and related conditions. 1976. 27 p. il.
S/N 017-045-00070-9 $1.30

How to Cope With Diabetes. Diabetes is a disease in which the body is unable to convert certain foods into the heat and energy necessary for normal activity. This booklet outlines the causes, symptoms, detection, and treatment of diabetes. It discusses current diabetes research and includes a list of sources for further information. 1978. 16 p. il.
S/N 017-045-00082-2 $1.10

Hearing Loss: Hope Through Research. Impaired hearing is one of the leading causes of chronic disability in America. This illustrated booklet explains how we hear and the main types of hearing loss, describes the different types of hearing aids and how to select the one that's right for you, touches on speechreading and sign language, and much more. 1976. 35 p. il.
S/N 017-049-00083-6 $1.40

Facts About Obesity. Outlines the causes, effects, and treatment of obesity and offers advice on its prevention. 1976. 20 p. il.
S/N 017-045-00067-9 $1.10

Inside the Cell. Explains the current state of knowledge about the living cell in easy-to-understand language. Inside the Cell defines the basic characteristics of a cell and tells how the various parts of a cell function. 1978. 96 p. il.
S/N 017-040-00439-7 $2.40

Facts: Smoking and Health. Based upon reports by the Surgeon General and the Public Health Service, this booklet discusses the relationship between smoking and cancer, heart disease, and other ailments. Rev 1977. 12 p. il.
S/N 017-027-00038-7 $1.00

This Side Up: Making Decisions About Drugs. An attractively illustrated publication intended to help young people who are faced with decisions about drug use. 1979. 64 p. il.
S/N 017-024-00776-5 $2.20

Marihuana and Health, 1976. This publication is the sixth in a series of annual reports about the effects of marihuana on health. This is the first report in the series addressed to a general rather than a scientific audience. It discusses the nature, extent, and future trends of marihuana use; its chemistry and metabolism; its physical and psychological effects; its therapeutic uses; and future research directions. 1977. 44 p.
S/N 017-024-00570-3 $1.00

Someone Close Drinks Too Much. A wife, husband, friend, or relative; it seems unfortunate, but almost everyone knows a person who drinks too much. This booklet has some valuable advice on what you can do to help, including guidance on assisting the problem drinker and the names and addresses of several groups that can assist you in your efforts to help the problem drinker. 1974. 15 p. il.
S/N 017-024-00356-5 $1.00

Facts About Alcohol and Alcoholism. An informative discussion of alcohol and its effects on people and society. Begins with a history of alcohol use, reviews the physical effects and chemical composition of alcohol, discusses alcoholism in detail, and concludes with a list of government agencies and local groups where assistance is available for the alcoholic and his family. 1974. 44 p.
S/N 017-024-00351-4 $1.50

Drug Treatment in Psychiatry. Drawing on the experience of VA hospitals, this booklet discusses antipsychotic drugs, antianxiety drugs, antidepressant drugs, and lithium carbonate in terms of treatment considerations, drug therapy, and complications and counterindications. 1970, rep 1976. 35 p.
S/N 051-000-00028-5 $1.00

Research on Sleep and Dreams. A look at current developments in an area generally identified as sleep and dream research, this book attempts to answer some basic questions we all have about the need for sleep, the meaning of dreams, and the elements of good sleeping patterns. A variety of disciplines contributing to the study of sleep are included, such as psychiatry, mathematics, biochemistry, and anthropology. Insomnia, somnambulism, and several other common sleep disorders are discussed, as well as the meaning of dreams, dream recall, and dream intensity. 1965, rep 1976. 125 p.

S/N 017-040-00127-4 $2.10

Chinese Herbal Medicine. Part of a series of studies on the health systems of other countries. Discusses efforts by the Chinese to combine traditional and Western medical systems into a single, coherent entity. Illustrates the chemical composition and medical effects of 44 individual herbs. 1974. 120 p. il.
S/N 017-053-00032-9 $1.90

First Aid. Describes and illustrates basic first aid procedures for over 25 specific injuries and conditions requiring emergency attention. 1976. 66 p. il.
S/N 024-019-00017-9 $2.75

The Ship's Medicine Chest and Medical Aid at Sea. Developed by the Public Health Service to provide ships' personnel with illustrated, plain-language medical instruction that can be called upon in emergencies, this comprehensive book is also of value to campers, backwoodsmen, and anyone who spends time out of doors, away from medical help. Written in layman's language, it presents a thorough review of basic anatomy, patient examination techniques, and the emergency treatment of injuries. The diagnosis and treatment of common diseases, storing and using medicines, and nursing procedures are also described. For the crews of merchant ships and fishing vessels, there is a detailed discussion of the proper handling of births and deaths at sea, the specific medical problems associated with castaways, the prevention and control of communicable disease aboard ship, the procedures for obtaining medical advice by radio, and patient evacuation by helicopter. Rev 1978. 474 p. il.
S/N 017-029-00026-6 Cloth, $10.25

Pocket Guide to Federal Help for the Disabled Person. A wide variety of programs, benefits, and services are offered by the Federal Government to handicapped persons. This booklet outlines the general scope of Federal support for services to the handicapped and includes the names and addresses of the various agencies that can steer you to their State and/or local counterpart offices. It discusses programs in the areas of vocational rehabilitation, education, employment, financial and medical assistance, housing, and much more. 1979. 20 p.
S/N 017-000-00216-3 $1.00

Contrary to Nature. This is an impressive, well-researched book on the history of cancer and cancer research. It contains a wealth of information for anyone interested in how knowledge concerning cancer has been developed over the years. 1977. 498 p. il.
S/N 017-042-00128-5 Cloth, $14.75

Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS). Oulines policies and procedures for administration of the CHAMPUS program. 1977. 272 p.
S/N 008-001-00102-9 $4.25

Good Eating and Good Nutrition

Let's Cook Fish! A complete guide to fish cookery, this colorful booklet tells you how to spot high quality fish at the market, how to store and thaw fish, and the proper way to clean and dress fish. It also describes five different ways to prepare fish (baking, broiling, frying, poaching, and steaming) and contains more than 30 recipes for fish dinners, salads, and soups. 1972. 54 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00053-3 $1.25

How to Eye and Buy Seafood. Fish and shellfish can be a nourishing and delicious addition to your menu plans. They are economical, convenient, and a real problem-solver for dieters. This handy booklet provides timely information on selecting, purchasing, storing, and preparing fishery products. A useful table of suggested methods for cooking fish and shellfish is included. 1976. 19 p. il.

S/N 003-020-00001-1 $1.00

Seafood Heritage: From the Plains to the Pacific. Whichever of the 34 recipes in this booklet you choose, you can be sure you'll savor the flavor and variety inherent in the best of the west. 1976. 28 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00124-6 $2.50

Seafood Heritage: From the Rappahannock to the Rio Grande. Good food is a southern tradition, and seafood has always been a favorite with southern cooks. This booklet contains more than 40 recipes for seafood as they make it down South, including fried catfish, Florida red snapper, creole jambalaya, and many others. 1976. 29 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00118-1 $1.10

Fish and Shellfish Over the Coals. Contains many new and delicious recipes for preparing your favorite seafood on the outdoor grill. Italian style salmon steaks, Chesapeake Bay clambake, oriental swordfish steaks, and grilled king crab legs are just a few of the taste-tempting recipes you will find in this colorful booklet. Includes helpful hints on selecting the fish, how much to buy, how to know good fish, and starting the charcoal fire. 1977. 24 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00052-5 $1.25

Time for Seafood. Contains 25 recipes for preparing a variety of seafood in a minimum amount of time. Great for those with limited time to spend in the kitchen. Rep 1976. 24 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00108-4 $1.00

Nautical Notions for Nibbling. The seafood appetizers described in this booklet will be the hit of your next party. Recipes are given for 26 delicious seafood appetizers including crab canapes, skewered scallops, lobster boats, and more. Rep 1976. 24 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00109-2 $1.00

Seafood Slimmers. Attention dieters! Designed just for you, this colorful booklet presents an ocean of delicious, low-calorie variety. Combined with a bit of imagination and a dash of color, the 22 recipes printed here offer endless possibilities for lunches, dinners, and snacks. There are also tips on various seafood cooking methods, low-calorie sauces, perky garnishes, and colorful, "go-with" foods. 1975. 20 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00104-1 $1.20

"Can-Venient" Ways With Shrimp. Canned shrimp is an economical and convenient family food that is available the year round. This booklet contains 18 recipes for preparing salads, appetizers, sandwiches, and casseroles featuring canned shrimp. 1975. 12 p. il.
S/N 003-020-00105-0 $1.20

How to Buy Food. A kit of 14 booklets to help you get the most for your money when you shop for food. Each booklet is crammed with practical advice on what to look for when you shop, how to judge quality, whether to buy bulk quantities, and so forth. Covered topics include buying meat, choosing fresh vegetables, how to buy dairy products, and much more. Rep 1973. 14 booklets, 236 p. il.
S/N 001-016-00090-3 $4.45

Aunt Sammy's Radio Recipes. A collection of the best of the recipes from the popular "Housekeeper's Chat" radio show of 1926-1934. The selections in this cookbook were retested recently by the Department of Agriculture. 1976. 24 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03523-1 $1.50

Food Guide for Older Folks. Offers advice on planning, buying, and preparing foods to assure adequate nutrition for persons over 60 years of age. 1974, rep 1979. 19 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03321-2 $1.10

Cooking for Two. Preparing interesting, nourishing meals in small quantities can be a challenge. This Department of Agriculture booklet contains recipes and menus that are especially tailored for couples. Hints are included on planning and serving meals and information on nutrition is provided. The book is printed in large type and should be particularly useful to older couples. Rev 1977. 89 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03698-0 $1.90

Recipes for Quantity Service. A file of 151 5 x 8 inch cards with recipes that are especially designed for preparing and serving food in quantity. Recipes are standardized to produce one hundred servings, and cards are issued with colored index tabs. 1972, rep 1977. 151 cards.
S/N 001-000-01495-1 $9.35

Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables. Describes the various types of canning equipment that can be used and provides illustrated instructions for canning more than 30 different fruits and vegetables. Rev 1977. 31 p. il.
S/N 001-000-03535-5 $1.50

Home Freezing of Fruits and Vegetables. Provides illustrated directions for freezing many fruits and vegetables so they retain their freshness and nutritive value. Also tells what fruits and vegetables can be frozen, how to prepare them, and what type of containers to use. 1971, rep 1980 48 il.
S/N 001-000-02448-5 $2.00

What's to Eat: 1979 Yearbook of Agriculture. A sharp departure from past practice, this year's volume is designed and written exclusively for children. From cover to cover it's a full-color feast of stories, games, jokes, craft projects, recipes, and fun facts. The target age group for What's to Eat? is eight to thirteen. It's issued in paperback and in a large 8½ x 11 inch format to allow for large illustrations and type. Parents, teachers, and librarians will find this edition of the Yearbook an ideal way for kids to learn about the food network and the importance of good nutrition to good health. 1980. 142 p. il.
S/N 001-000-04041-3 $4.50

Food for the Teenager During Pregnancy. Advises teenage girls on the proper foods to eat during pregnancy. 1977. 24 p. il.
S/N 017-026-00062-3 $1.20

Composition of Foods: Raw, Processed, Prepared. Provides statistical data on the nutritive value of foods. 1963, rep 1979. 190 p.
S/N 001-000-00768-8 $4.00

Nutritive Value of American Foods in Common Units. This handbook tells you how many calories and nutrients are in common units of each of approximately 1500 foods. The publication is composed chiefly of tables and statistics. 1975. 291 p.
S/N 001-000-03184-8 $7.50

Children and Families

Breast Feeding. This excellent booklet can help you to make a choice about breast feeding your new baby. It includes tips on how to prepare for breast feeding before the baby is born, how to get started, how to nurse a new baby with ease, how to continue nursing if you work outside the home, and much more. 1979. 22 p. il.
S/N 017-026-00084-4 $2.25

Prenatal Care. In an easy-to-read, question-and-answer format, this booklet helps mothers-to-be understand the many changes that they are experiencing and so protect their health and that of their unborn babies. 1973, rep 1980. 71 p. il.
S/N 017-091-00187-1 $2.00

Infant Care. The Government's all-time bestseller, this booklet provides the basic information most needed by parents of new infants, especially first babies. Developed by a team of doctors, nurses, and child development experts, Infant Care is designed to help parents understand the many facets of giving baby a good start in life and includes advice on feeding, clothing, illness, temperament, discipline, and growth and development. 1980. 72 p. il.
S/N 017-091-00228-2 $2.00

YOUR CHILD FROM ONE TO SIX
When Your Child Goes to the Hospital
SUPER ME SUPER YO
A Bilingual Activity Book for Young Children
SUPER ME
SUPER YO
Beautiful Junk
No Easy Answers
YOURS MINE & OURS

Your Child From One to Six. Contains invaluable advice for protecting a child's well-being and guiding his mental, emotional, and social development during the critical preschool years. Developed by a group of eminent physicians, it deals not so much with every possible occurrence during the first six years of life, but provides a core of knowledge and a framework with which parents can make intelligent decisions as new situations arise. 1978. 92 p. il.
S/N 017-091-00219-3 $1.75

Your Child From 6 to 12. Discusses the role of parents as family leaders, what play means in the life of a child, children and money, keeping your child healthy, guiding the child's social involvements, helping the child make the most of school, and much more. 1966, rep 1980. 98 p. il.
S/N 017-091-00070-1 $2.25

Yours, Mine & Ours: Tips for Stepparents. Suggests some steps to take before remarriage to ease the transition into the new family and alerts couples to problems that many stepfamilies have encountered and the ways they have found to deal with them. 1978. 27 p. il.
S/N 017-024-00833-8 $2.00

Beautiful Junk. Lists 42 ideas for improvising children's playthings from discarded or unused household and commercial items. 1975. 12 p. il.
S/N 017-092-00004-9 $1.00

When Your Child First Goes Off to School. The Director of the National Institute of Mental Health advises parents on ways to bolster the confidence of children who are starting school. 1973. 6 p. il.
S/N 017-024-00499-5 $1.00

No Easy Answers: The Learning Disabled Child. Helps parents and teachers understand why certain children have difficulty in learning, why they behave as they do, and how parents and educators can help these children to overcome their learning difficulties. 1978. 131 p.
S/N 017-024-00687-4 $3.25

Learning to Talk: Speech, Hearing, and Language Problems in the Pre-School Child. Offers insight into the communication process, including how children learn to talk, what to expect at certain ages, and what may be involved if your child has trouble learning to speak. 1978. 48 p.il.
S/N 017-049-00082-8 $1.90

Super Me, Super Yo: A Bilingual Activity Guide for Children. This is one of the first books for young children (ages 4 to 6) written to help prevent drug abuse. Richly illustrated, it will provide many hours of fun and learning for preschoolers, while instilling a sense of self-worth and confidence. This English/Spanish activity book offers stories, games, puzzles, crafts, and more to entertain young children. 1977. 68 p. il.
S/N 017-024-00456-1 $4.50

When Your Child Goes to the Hospital. Filled with practical, reassuring advice to help you, your child, and other family members cope with the hospitalization of a child. Tells how to explain hospitalization to a child, includes advice on selecting a hospital and choosing a doctor, and discusses the pros and cons of staying with the child in the hospital. 1976, rep 1979. 36 p. il.
S/N 017-091-00217-7 $1.75

Young Children and Accidents in the Home. Describes the major causes of children's accidents in the home, lists good safety practices, and provides a sheet of first aid information. 1974, rep 1978. 28 p. il.
S/N 017-091-00191-0 $1.75

An Adolescent in Your Home. Examines the kinds of problems young people and their parents face, describes some typical characteristics of the teenage years, and offers special advice to parents who feel their children may be involved with drugs. 1976. 27 p. il.
S/N 017-091-00202-9 $1.00

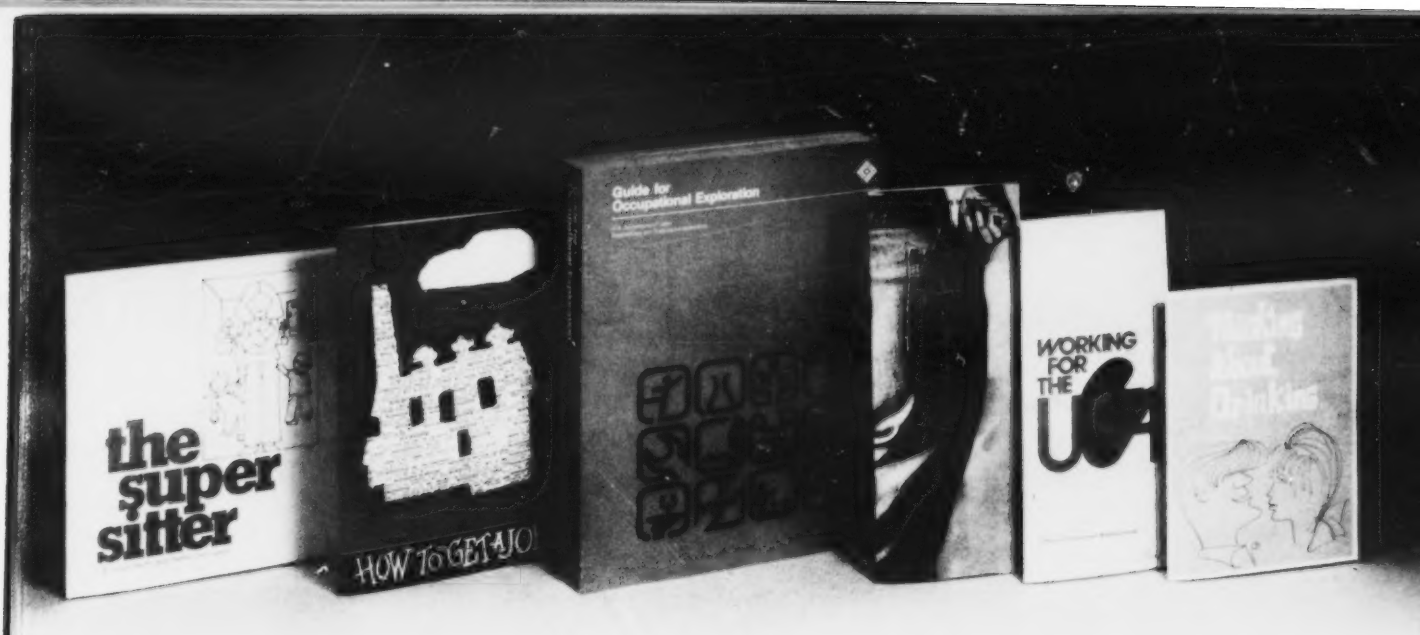
Children and Families
Intended for parents and children of all ages, the publications in this category offer helpful advice on the everyday problems and joys of family life.
Math
Beautiful Junk
No Easy Answers
learning to talk
the super sitter



Super Sitter. Written specifically for young adults, this booklet provides a series of tips to help both novice and experienced babysitters ensure the safety of the children they watch. 1977. 12 p. il.
S/N 052-011-00114-7 $1.25

The Pocket Guide to Babysitting. Babysitting is a big responsibility. This handy pocket-size pamphlet can help teenagers to meet that responsibility by summarizing just about everything they would ever need to know about babysitting. 1974, rep 1979. 48 p. il.
S/N 017-091-00197-9 $2.25

Teenage Pregnancy: Everybody's Problem. Briefly discusses the risks and consequences of teenage pregnancy, outlines the alternatives, and offers advice on facing the problem. 1977. 12 p.
S/N 017-026-00063-1 $1.00

The Hassles of Becoming a Teenage Parent. This pamphlet explains the importance of family planning and birth control to teenagers. It describes methods of contraception, the possible problems involved in pregnacy during the teenage years, and the dangers of venereal disease. 1975. 9 p. il.
S/N 017-031-00008-2 $1.00

Thinking About Drinking. A pamphlet prepared for young people as a basis for discussion of attitudes about drinking. Reflects the latest findings in alcohol research. 1972, rep 1977. 31 p. il.
S/N 017-024-00187-2 $1.50

Look Out for Yourself! Helpful Hints for Selecting a School or College. This pamphlet can help you to ask the right questions when choosing a particular program or school. It lists questions and answers other students have found helpful, as well as sources of additional information. 1977. 16 p.
S/N 017-080-01776-8 $1.00

Careers

Guide for Occupational Exploration. By providing information about the interests, aptitudes, adaptabilities, and other requisites of occupational groups, the Guide makes possible a comparison of these requirements with what the individual knows about himself or herself. It is also a tool for counselors assisting individuals in self-assessment and occupational choice. 1979. 715 p. il.
S/N 029-013-00080-2 $11.00

How to Get a Job, A Handy Guide for Jobseekers. Produced by the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped, this booklet offers basic guidance on selecting a job field, applying and interviewing for a position, and starting to work. 1976. 29 p. il.
S/N 052-003-00087-3 $1.00

Working for the USA. To serve a nation of over 200 million around the clock every day of the year, the Federal Government employs people in almost every skill, profession, and capacity. If you'd like to learn about working for Uncle Sam, this pamphlet is a good place to begin. It provides a wealth of information on the structure and operation of the Office of Personnel Management, lists employment requirements, discusses hiring practices and rules, and summarizes the basic programs and policies that govern Federal employees. 1979. 29 p.
S/N 006-000-01104-7 $2.25

Federal Career Directory, 1976–1977, A Guide for College Students. This directory presents specific information about Federal careers and the agencies that employ college graduates. It can help the school counselor to provide general guidance to the college student interested in working for the Federal Government. For the student, the Directory is a useful reference for investigating the wide variety of career choices offered in today's Federal service. 1976. 156 p. il.
S/N 006-000-00900-0 $3.45

Basic Nursing. An Army Technical Manual used in training medical corpsmen, medical specialists, and clinical specialists in the nursing aspects of medical care and treatment. Includes units on anatomy and physiology, disease and injury, pharmacology and drug administration, basic nursing procedures, outpatient medical care, obstetrical nursing, emergency medical care, administration, pediatric nursing, geriatric nursing, and more. Looseleaf, three-hole punch. 1970. 632 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00336-1 $7.55

Health Careers Guidebook. The health field is one of the largest and most important occupational areas in the American economy. The Guidebook provides updated, detailed descriptions of the work, job requirements, and opportunities of each area of health care. It has been enlarged to include new occupations reflecting the latest developments in medical science and information on financial aid for training and education. Each description includes a reference to sources of additional information. 1979. 221 p. il.
S/N 029-000-00343-2 $5.25

A Working Woman's Guide to Her Job Rights. Because the laws regarding jobs and job-seeking have been changing rapidly, many women are unaware of their rights. This guide presents general information about legislation that affects women. Of special interest are: protection against sex discrimination, minimum wages and overtime pay, promotions, maternity leave, tax credit for child care and household help, equal pay, and more. 1978. 32 p. il.
S/N 029-016-00056-9 $1.60

Occupational Outlook Handbook, 1980-81. Three hundred occupations are reviewed as to type of work, education and qualifications necessary, expected earnings, and future outlook. Includes indispensable information for guidance counselors and career development centers. Available in both cloth- and paperbound editions.

Paperbound Edition. 1980. 660 p. il.
S/N 029-001-02324-3 $8.00

Clothbound Edition. 1980. 660 p. il.
S/N 029-001-02325-1 $11.00

Dictionary of Occupational Titles, Fourth Edition. A compendium of about 20,000 occupations in the American economy, this large volume contains an integrated arrangement of occupational definitions and the classification structure used to group such occupations in terms of related duties and activities. It includes sections on the purpose and history of the Dictionary and how to use it as an occupational reference source or as a tool for job placement. It also contains occupational titles arranged alphabetically and by industry and a glossary of defined technical terms. 1977. 1371 p.
S/N 029-013-00079-9 $12.00

Get Credit for What You Know. Describes various ways of building educational credit without going to school. 1974. 8 p.
S/N 029-000-00201-1 $1.00

Follow the Yellow Brick Roads. This attractive book presents career education ideas for teachers of elementary through post-secondary students and other interested community persons. It includes projects and techniques for classroom use, guidelines for utilizing community resources, suggestions for effective career counseling and guidance, and ideas on how management can help to implement a meaningful career education program. 1979. 82 p.
S/N 017-080-02028-9 $4.40

Space Exploration

Lunar Impact: A History of Project Ranger. This book describes the growth and eventual success of the Ranger lunar project, which produced most of the basic management techniques, flight operating procedures, and technology for NASA's later unmanned lunar and planetary missions. 1977. 450 p. il.

*Revised regularly, see page 2

S/N 033-000-00699-3 $6.25

Man in Space. This pamphlet covers the first decade of NASA's manned space flight programs. It describes the development of equipment and ships suitable for space travel, the Mercury and Gemini programs, and preparation for the Apollo flights. 1968. 30 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00155-0 $1.05

Apollo. Traces the history of the Apollo space program during the 1960s and includes photos of the blast-offs, moon walks, space capsules, astronauts, and splashdowns. A great souvenir of the Apollo space program that is sure to please your favorite space buff. 1974. 64 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00553-9 $4.25

Apollo Over the Moon: A View From Orbit. This beautifully produced volume presents nearly 250 of the Apollo mission's most striking photographs of the Moon's surface. Each photo is accompanied by the best available photointerpretive explanation of the formation it captures. The photos are arranged into studies of the major types of lunar features. The result is an excitingly different coffee-table book that will also provide wonderful change-of-pace reading for the intellectually curious. 1978. 225 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00708-6 Cloth, $14.00

Apollo 8, Man Around the Moon. During the Christmas season of 1968, the Apollo 8 spacecraft and its crew of three spun around the moon and back to Earth. That journey marked the onset of a space flight program that catapulted America into the forefront of space exploration. Man Around the Moon outlines the entire Apollo 8 mission, from training the astronauts on dry land to recovering them in the Pacific Ocean. It includes more than 65 photographs, with many color shots of the Earth and moon taken from the spacecraft during flight. 1968, rep 1971. 24 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00157-6 $1.00

Apollo-Soyuz Experiments in Space. The nine booklets in this package discuss the Apollo-Soyuz mission, when American and Soviet astronauts met for the first international handshake in space, and describe the 34 experiments performed by the crews. Nine books, sold only as a set. 1977. 9 books, 480 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00688-8 $10.00

"In This Decade . . ." Mission to the Moon. A detailed description of the Apollo space program, particularly Apollo 11 when man walked on the moon for the first time. Many colorful photos and a well-written, exciting text combine to describe this historic space mission. 1969. 46 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00160-6 $1.45

Apollo 13, "Houston, We've Got a Problem." Captures all of the drama surrounding the exciting Apollo 13 mission launched in April 1970. It was during this mission that astronauts Lowell, Swigert, and Haise were confronted with the potentially dangerous oxygen tank that had ruptured in flight. 1970. 26 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00165-7 $1.25

Apollo 16 at Descartes. A colorfully illustrated history of the Apollo 16 mission to the surface of the moon. Rep 1976. 32 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00449-4 $1.45

On the Moon With Apollo 16, A Guidebook to the Descartes Region. NASA published this guidebook shortly before the launch of Apollo 16 in April 1972, so that the interested viewer could more easily understand the mission. It describes the purpose of the mission and the landing site (Descartes Crater), tells how moon craters were formed, and presents stories about the astronauts, their equipment and lunar itinerary, and tables of other Apollo experiments. 1972. 90 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00421-4 $1.20

On the Moon With Apollo 17, Guidebook to Taurus Littrow. Published just before the launching of Apollo 17, this book is both an excellent memento of the last Apollo flight and a guidebook to the activities of the mission. It describes the experiments set up on the surface of the moon, traverses during which the astronauts collected lunar samples, and orbital science experiments in the Apollo 17 service module. 1972. 111 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00470-2 $1.45

NASA Picture Set No. 2, Men of Apollo 7–11. A set of five full-color pictures of men from the crews of Apollo missions 7 through 11. 1969. 5 posters, 11 x 14 inches.
S/N 033-000-00293-9 $2.25

This Island Earth. A collection of impressive pictures of Earth as it appears from space. Contains 144 color photographs taken by the Apollo astronauts and 33 black and white shots captured by Observer satellites. 1970. 182 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00321-8 Cloth, $9.50

Apollo Expeditions to the Moon. This dazzling color book describes the entire 15-year Apollo space program. Written by 18 key members of the team that successfully planned and carried out the enormous national effort to land men on the moon, it tells the dramatic story of what are perhaps the most exciting and challenging scientific voyages in modern history. 1975. 313 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00630-6 Cloth, $12.00

What's New on the Moon? This booklet provides an informative, well-illustrated summary of the knowledge gained from long-term analyses of lunar material and data collected by the Apollo missions. It discusses the composition of the surface and interior of the moon, its age and history, the origin of the moon and the solar system, and more. 1976. 24 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00653-5 $1.00

Mission to Earth: Landsat Views the World. This big, beautiful coffee table book contains more than 400 of the best photographs from NASA's Landsat project. Almost all of the photos reproduced here are in full color, and detailed captions explain the major points of interest in the photographs. 1976. 459 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00659-4 Cloth, $14.00

Voyage of Mariner 10: Mission to Venus and Mercury. Mariner 10 visited Venus once and Mercury three times during a voyage that spanned a little over 500 days and more than a billion kilometers. During this voyage the spacecraft took over 8000 pictures of Earth, the moon, Venus, and Mercury. The best of these pictures are reproduced in this handsome volume, along with many photos and illustrations that detail the history and mission of the program. 1978. 224 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00710-8 Cloth, $12.25

Mars: The Viking Discoveries. The Viking missions to Mars uncovered a wealth of scientific information about the so called "red planet." This color booklet summarizes the most noteworthy of these discoveries and outlines the experiments that were designed to penetrate the shroud of mystery surrounding Mars. Its narrative introduces the reader to Mars, the Viking spacecraft, and the mission's format, and then moves on to discuss Viking's findings on the history and formation of Mars and on its weather, composition, chemistry, biology, and future. 1977. 36 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00703-5 $1.50

The Martian Landscape. A magnificent "photo album" of over 150 stunning pictures taken by the Viking 1 and 2 landers on the surface of Mars. The special effects section of the book includes the often-reproduced "Martian sunset" picture, images of the sun and Phobos, and, crowning glory of the entire collection, a series of 19 three-dimensional stereo pairs with a specially designed stereoscope viewer. The volume is beautifully printed and bound in large format (11 x 14 inches) and includes an introductory anecdotal account of the eight years of the Viking program. With its exciting visuals and informative, educational text, The Martian Landscape is sure to delight the imaginative and curious of all ages and interests. 1978. 160 p. il.

S/N 033-000-00716-7 Cloth, $12.00

Mars as Viewed by Mariner 9. On November 14, 1971, Mariner 9 became the first manmade object to orbit another planet. In the course of its exploration it discovered four enormous volcanoes, each the size of Arizona and as much as 15 miles high, and an immense chasm 10 times the size of the Grand Canyon. This remarkable book presents the best of the more than 7300 images returned by Mariner 9, including complete coverage of the gigantic volcanoes and canyons. The hundreds of illustrations, many full page, are accompanied by nontechnical explanations of the landscape's features, making this volume as informative as it is interesting. Rev 1976. 225 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00645-4 Cloth, $8.25

Viking Pictures of Mars, Set 1. A set of nine, large format (12 x 25 inches) reproductions of photographs taken on Mars by Viking landers. These color and black and white reproductions are suitable for framing and are sold only as a set. 1977. 9 posters, il.
S/N 033-000-00691-8 $3.50

Viking Project, Mission to Mars: The Colors of Mars. Although known as the "red planet," Mars has a multitude of colors which relate directly to the chemistry of the planet, its environment, and its physical history. This bulletin discusses the scientific importance of the colors of Mars and includes several excellent color photographs of the planet. 1976. 14 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00666-7 $1.00

Pioneer Odyssey. Pioneer Odyssey recounts the story of the Pioneer space program that sent two 500-lb spacecraft to examine and photograph Jupiter. All aspects of the design and function of the equipment and the program are discussed, the significance of experimental findings are explained, and dozens of large color photographs illustrate the wealth of information that was learned about Jupiter. Rev 1977. 217 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00662-4 Cloth, $9.85

Skylab, Our First Space Station. Follows the three manned Skylab missions from launch to reentry, providing key insights into the human as well as the technical side of the triumphs of each mission. Contains many color photographs. 1977. 164 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00670-5 Cloth, $7.00

Skylab: A Guidebook. Summarizes the history of the Skylab mission, its components and operational systems, and its experiments and research programs. Includes many photographs and detailed diagrams of Skylab and its supporting facilities. 1973. 245 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00508-3 $2.20

Skylab Explores the Earth. This large volume reproduces in full color and map-like detail hundreds of the most striking Skylab photographs, constituting a virtual "earth photo album." Among the unforgettable views of Earth are those of the Grand Canyon, the Sahara Desert, the Hawaiian Islands, and California's fault lines. Captions and accompanying text and charts interpret each photograph, enabling the reader to appreciate and understand its importance to Earth scientists. 1977. 517 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00674-8 Cloth, $15.00

Skylab, Classroom in Space. This book describes 25 experiments devised by high-school students and actually performed by astronauts aboard Skylab. 1977. 182 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00678-1 Cloth, $8.25

The Space Shuttle at Work. For the past two decades, America's space program has concentrated on exploring space. Now it is about to enter a new phase, one which will seek to utilize space rather than explore it. The Space Shuttle at Work is your introduction to the key element of this program and the possibilities it presents. Handsomely illustrated in color and b & w, it describes the layout of the Shuttle, its capabilities, the way it is launched and landed, a typical week's work for the crew, and the plans and dreams that weekly, routine space transportation permit. An exciting, informative description of how the US plans to make space an extension of life on the Earth's surface. 1980. 80 p. il.

S/N 033-000-00799-0 $4.75

Space Shuttle Wallsheet. Space lovers of all ages will be fascinated by this colorfully illustrated, 30 x 42 inch poster. It presents a cutaway view of the space shuttle that allows you to look through its "skin." Size, wingspan, weight, thrust, and operational altitude data are depicted in a large, detailed drawing. Many smaller drawings show other aspects of the space transportation system, and several paragraphs of space shuttle information are provided on the poster. 1978. Poster, il.
S/N 033-000-00743-4 $2.50

Space Shuttle Factsheet. The development of the space shuttle, its components, and a typical mission are all described in this interesting NASA Factsheet. The realistic drawings illustrate how various shuttle missions will be carried out, and an improved space suit and unique rescue system that have been developed for the shuttle are described. 1977. 8 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00679-9 $1.00

Space Settlements: A Design Study. Our astronauts have accomplished the amazing feat of walking on the moon. What's next? Can people live in space in permanent colonies? This beautifully illustrated book explores these and other intriguing questions about the future of space colonization. It will provide hours of reading enjoyment for anyone who has ever been fascinated by a science fiction movie or wondered what life in space would be like. A detailed and sound technology for the construction and permanent habitation of a 10,000-person "space wheel" between Earth and the moon is presented, including artificial gravity, closed recycling for all materials, a self-supporting food chain, and much more. 1977. 185 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00669-1 $5.00

Quasars, Pulsars, Black Holes, and Heaos. During the last decade many new astronomical phenomena have been observed that have led to revolutionary theories about energy, matter, and the origin of the universe. This colorful booklet discusses quasars (emit more energy than any other celestial object), pulsars (extremely dense neutron stars), and black holes (former stars with intense gravity fields) which are among these discoveries. 1974. 20 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00542-3 $2.00

Planet Venus. Intended as a curriculum supplement for high school science and math classes, this booklet presents a fascinating summary of what is known about Venus and outlines the areas scientists find most puzzling. Three student projects incorporting astronomical problems are included. 1977. 8 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00714-1 $1.00

Atoms and Astronomy. This booklet is intended primarily for teachers of junior high-level science courses. It discusses the field of astronomical spectroscopy, particularly electromagnetic radiation and atomic physics. 1976. 31 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00656-0 $1.20

Chemistry Between the Stars. This booklet, intended for high school teachers of physics, chemistry, astronomy, or earth science, introduces a fascinating and potentially far-reaching new field of astronomy: the study of the chemical composition of interstellar space. Rep 1977. 59 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00655-1 $1.60

The Possibility of Intelligent Life Elsewhere in the Universe. This congressional report, which analyzes the possibility of other intelligent life forms in the universe, comes up with some surprising conclusions. It explains and illustrates an actual space message sent in 1974 to another galaxy 24,000 light years away. Rev 1977. 126 p. il.
S/N 052-070-04332-6 $2.30

The Search for Extraterrestrial Intelligence. Throughout 1975 and 1976 a series of workshops was held to examine the validity and feasibility of a program to detect extraterrestrial life. This publication presents the findings of those workshops and concludes that it is both timely and feasible to begin a serious search for extraterrestrial intelligence. 1977. 276 p. il.
S/N 033-000-00696-9 $4.50

Miscellaneous Publications

Color in Our Daily Lives. Color plays a vital, if largely unnoticed, role in our daily lives. This excellent book describes the principles governing color relationships and the use of color. Many stunning photographs illustrate how color can be employed to enhance our living environment. 1975. 32 p. il.
S/N 003-003-01536-9 $1.70

Craft Techniques in Occupational Therapy. An Army Technical Manual used in training occupational therapy officers. Provides a basic knowldge of the major arts and crafts and the most common tools associated with them. The Army does not recommend this manual for distribution to patients. Looseleaf, three-hole punch. 1971. 525 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00397-2 $10.00

Harpsichords and Clavichords. Until they were replaced by the piano in the 19th century, harpsichords and clavichords were the two most important types of stringed instruments used in America. This booklet describes and illustrates a selection of the restored harpsichords and clavichords on display at the Smithsonian Institution. 1969, rep 1979. 43 p. il.
S/N 047-001-00109-5 $2.00

And the Band Played On, 1776–1976. This Smithsonian Institution publication focuses on the history of bands in America, from the fife and drum corps of the Revolution to the jazz and big-band era of the 1940s to 1960s. 1975. 54 p. il.
S/N 047-001-00127-3 $1.60

Viewpoints, A Selection from the Pictorial Collections of the Library of Congress. A marvelous catalog commemorating 75 years of visual arts at the Library of Congress. Included are photos of 1895 streetcars and a 1903 New Orleans milk cart; a lithograph of boxer Jack Dempsey being knocked through the ropes by Luis Firpo, the Wild Bull of the Pampas; a rare painting of Mickey Mouse from the studio of Walt Disney; and photographs of many legendary figures. 1975. 223 p. il.
S/N 030-014-00001-4 Cloth, $9.20

Art in the United States Capitol. This handsome book has a photograph of each of the almost 700 pieces of art contained in the collection at the US Capitol. The collection includes 132 portraits of US Presidents, Senators, Speakers of the House, and other prominent individuals; 54 paintings; 77 busts; 102 statues; 137 frescoes, murals, and lunettes; and 200 other works of art. 1976. 453 p.il.
S/N 052-071-00546-3 Cloth, $12.55

Washington Architecture, 1791–1861: Problems in Development. Issued by the US Commission of Fine Arts, this illustrated history examines the numerous problems encountered in the development of the Nation's Capital. It reviews Major Pierre Charles L'Enfant's plan for the design and development of the city, chronicles the alteration and abbreviation of the plan by one Congress after another, and describes the effect of these changes on the growth of the city up to the time of the Civil War. Over 200 illustrations of Washington architecture are included. 1971, rep 1977. 161 p. il.

S/N 010-000-00004-1 Cloth, $6.40

Elements of Surveying. Outlines the basic principles and procedures of field surveying, as well as the care, use, and adjustment of surveying instruments. 1971, rep 1978. 303 p. il.
S/N 008-020-00388-3 $5.00

US Government Printing Office Style Manual. Provides helpful information for anyone concerned with the production of typewritten and printed material. Frequently referred to as the "stenographer's handbook," it answers innumerable questions on style and usage and provides rules and examples for capitalization, spelling, punctuation, abbreviations, tabular presentation, and the use of numerals. Available both in paperback and clothbound editions.

Paperback Edition. 1973, rep 1979. 548 p.
S/N 021-000-00070-1 $7.50

Clothbound Edition. 1973, rep 1979. 548 p.
S/N 021-000-00068-0 Cloth, $10.00

Word Division, Supplement to Government Printing Office Style Manual. A pocket-size book that outlines the rules governing word division and contains the proper divisions for more than 12,000 commonly used words. A useful desk companion for typists and students. 1976, rep 1980. 190 p.
S/N 021-000-00006-0 $3.75

Lithographer 1 and C. This training manual includes discussions of typography, layout, copy preparation, photography, platemaking, and color printing. 1970, rep 1977. 337 p. il.
S/N 008-047-00077-4 $4.00

From Sundials to Atomic Clocks: Understanding Time and Frequency. Time and its measurement are, simultaneously, very familiar and very mysterious. In nontechnical language, this publication examines the phenomena, history, and science of time, timekeeping, and the uses of time information. It is profusely illustrated and designed for the casual reader. 1977. 175 p.
S/N 003-003-01650-1 $5.50

Handbook of Mathematical Functions, With Formulas, Graphs, and Mathematical Tables. This book, a comprehensive summary of the mathematical functions that arise in physical and engineering problems, includes numerical tables, graphs, polynomial or rational approximations, and statements of the principal mathematical properties of the tabulated functions. 1964, rep 1972. 1046 p.
S/N 003-003-00279-8 Cloth, $12.65

Think Metric. Intended for use by employees of the US Geological Survey, this pamphlet provides an excellent introduction to the metric system for persons who have grown up with our customary measurement system. It reduces metric conversion to 10 easy approximations which, when memorized, allow one to make simple mental computations of metric equivalents. 1978. Folder.
S/N 024-001-03052-7 $1.00

Modernized Metric System: International System of Units. This poster provides a graphic demonstration of the seven basic units of metric measurement: meter, kilogram, second, ampere, kelvin, mole, and candela. 1972. Poster, 29 x 45 inches.
S/N 003-003-01072-3 $1.00

NBS Metric Kit: Official Metric Information. A handy package of basic metric information from the National Bureau of Standards. The kit contains: a wallet-size card that converts customary units of measure into metric units and vice versa; a 15 centimeter (6 inch) ruler; a copy of "What About Metric?", which explains in simple terms all you need to know about using metric in daily living; a brief history of measurement systems, including a colorful metric chart; and a reprinted article discussing the mechanics of the metric changeover and the progress that's been made. Rev 1977. Card, ruler, & booklets.
S/N 003-003-01736-1 $2.00

Frontiers of Science. A thought-provoking collection of 32 articles dealing with the environmental, physical, biological, and social sciences; science education; and more. 1977. 226 p. il.
S/N 038-000-00314-3 $4.00

Sensory Biology of Sharks, Skates, and Rays. How does a shark smell its prey underwater, and how does it detect minute electrical fields to aim an attack? These and other intriguing questions are answered in this informative book which reviews the most important research into the incredible sensory organs of sharks, skates and rays, the most superb in the marine environment. In addition, vision, hearing, chemical sense, and the newly discovered electrical and magnetic senses, as well as the behavior of the animals in the wild are all analyzed in this large volume. 1978. 666 p. il.
S/N 008-045-00020-8 Cloth, $13.25

Toxic Fish and Mollusks. Identifies the hazards of either eating or being stung by a toxic fish or mollusk. Discusses each type of poisoning, its cause, the species with which it is associated, symptoms of poisoning, prevention tips, and treatment techniques. Includes a section of color photos to aid in species identification. 1975, rev 1979. 33 p. il.
S/N 008-070-00426-7 $1.80

Edible and Hazardous Marine Life. Almost all sea life is edible and an excellent source of essential nutrients. The dangers that do exist are few and are best defended against through awareness and familiarity. Edible and Hazardous Marine Life, an Air Force training booklet, helps provide this awareness. It outlines the nutritional possibilities and details the dangers of attack or poisoning inherent in the global marine environment. Dozens of color photos aid in species identification. 1976, rep 1978. 38 p. il.
S/N 008-070-00425-9 $1.90

Poisonous Snakes of the World. This manual will help in the recognition of the major groups of poisonous snakes and in the identification of the most dangerous species of snakes. It includes photos of snakes from all over the world, and the snakebite first aid and prevention information make this book especially useful for campers, hunters, and anglers. 1972. 212 p. il.
S/N 008-045-00009-7 Cloth, $8.00

Typical Poisonous Plants. Provides useful information on more than 17 varieties of poisonous plants found most commonly in the US. Describes symptoms to look for in cases of accidental ingestion and tells how to administer emergency treatment until a physician arrives. 1973, rep 1976. 13 p. il.
S/N 017-012-00177-7 $1.00

Periodicals

Aging. A medium for sharing information about programs and activities among agencies and organizations in the field of geriatrics. Issued bimonthly. $9.25 a year domestic, $1.55 per single copy. $11.60 a year foreign, $1.95 per single copy.
Symbol=(AGING).

Agricultural Outlook. Updates and analyzes events affecting the US food and fiber economy. Highlights the major developments in farming, input industries, and produce marketing and discusses potential impact on US agriculture and the consumer. Issued monthly except Jan/Feb, which is a combined issue. $19.00 a year domestic, $23.75 a year foreign. No single copies sold.
Symbol=(ARGO).

Air University Review. Surveys professional thought concerning aerospace doctrine, strategy, tactics, and techniques. Issued bimonthly. $13.00 a year domestic, $2.25 per single copy. $16.25 a year foreign, $2.85 per single copy.
Symbol=(AURE).

Airman. The offical organ of the US Air Force, featuring vivid, illustrated articles on the most interesting aspects of the Air Force story. Issued monthly. $15.00 a year domestic, $1.30 per single copy. $18.75 a year foreign, $1.70 per single copy. Symbol=(A).

Alcohol Health and Research World. Issued quarterly. $6.40 a year domestic, $1.75 per single copy. $8.00 a year foreign, $2.20 per single copy. Symbol=(AHRW).

All Hands. Features articles of general public interest about the US Navy and its operations. Issued monthly. $18.00 a year domestic, $1.50 per single copy. $22.50 a year foreign, $1.90 per single copy. Symbol=(ALLH).

American Education. Covers preschool to adult education, new research and demonstration projects, major education legislation, school and college bond data, grants, loans, contracts, and fellowships. Issued monthly except Aug/Sept and Jan/Feb, which are combined issues. $12.00 a year domestic, $2.25 per single copy. $15.00 a year foreign, $2.85 per single copy. Symbol=(AMED).

Antarctic Journal of the United States. Provides a common outlet for all information on the National US Antarctic Program to a broad audience of participants and interested observers. Includes scientific and logistic reports on the US program in Antarctica, accounts of collaborative activities undertaken in the US, authoritative discussions of antarctic matters by qualified authors, and more. Issued quarterly with an extra annual review issue. $7.50 a year domestic, $1.00 per single quarterly issue and $5.50 per single annual review issue. $9.40 a year foreign, $1.25 per single quarterly issue, and $6.90 per single annual review issue. Symbol=(AJUS).

Background Notes on the Countries of the World. A series of short, factual pamphlets about the various countries and territories of the world. Typically, each pamphlet includes information on a country's land, people, history, government, political conditions, economy, and foreign relations. A subscription averages approximately 75 updated or new Background Notes (without binder) published during the 12-month period beginning at the time of subscription. They are shipped monthly in groups of about 6 Notes and are delivered in looseleaf form, punched for binder. The price is $16.00 domestic and $20.00 foreign. Single Notes cost $1.00 domestic and $1.25 foreign. Symbol=(BGN).

A complete set of all currently available Background Notes (without binder) may be purchased for $31.00 dometic or $38.75 foreign . set will include all Background Notes available at the time the order is processed. To order use stock number 044-000-91214-7.

A two-piece binder with fasteners to be used with this series may be purchased separately for $2.00 domestic and $2.50 foreign. To order use stock number 044-000-99608-1.

Business America. Includes reports on domestic business, economic affairs, overseas trade (includes foreign sales leads), scientific research, applied technology, and authoritative comment on current national and international business problems. Issued biweekly. $41.00 a year domestic, $2.00 per single copy. $51.25 a year foreign, $2.50 per single copy. Symbol=(CRTD).

Business Conditions Digest. Published by the Census Bureau, the Digest presents almost 500 economic indicators in a form convenient for analysts with different approaches to the study of current business conditions and prospects (eg, the national income model, the leading indicators, and anticipations and intentions), as well as for analysts who use combinations of these approaches. Issued monthly. $55.00 a year domestic, $4.75 per single copy. $68.75 a year foreign, $5.95 per single copy. Symbol=(BCD).

Children Today. Presents timely articles on child care and development, as well as the everyday joys and problems encountered by parents and others who are closely involved with children. Includes reports on current events, programs, and research relating to children from infancy through the high school years. Issued bimonthly. $8.00 a year domestic, $2.00 per single copy. $10.00 a year foreign, $2.50 per single copy. Index issue $1.00 domestic, $1.25 foreign. Symbol = (CT).

Commemorative Stamp Posters. Usually released three to four weeks in advance of the issue dates of the stamps, these posters, 8 x 10½ inches, provide an enlarged illustration of the stamp being issued and other data of interest to stamp collectors. This includes the date and place of issue, name of designer, number of stamps to be printed, and size and color. Each poster also includes complete instructions for those desiring to obtain first-day cancellations of the stamp. Does not include postcards and envelopes. Issued irregularly. $16.00 a year domestic, $20.00 foreign. No single copies sold. Symbol = (CSP).

The Congressional Staff Journal. Issued bimonthly. $8.00 a year domestic, $1.25 per single copy. $10.00 a year foreign, $1.60 per single copy. Symbol = (TCSJ).

Country Labor Profiles. Presents a concise summary of each country's basic economic statistics, a review of its economy, social conditions, and the facts about its labor force, productivity, skills, wages, prices, unions, dispute settlement procedures, and more. These four- to eight-page publications are usful for union and management representatives, government officials, students, and travelers who need an overview of labor conditions in other countries. Issued irregularly. $21.00 a year domestic, $1.00 per single copy. $26.25 a year foreign, $1.25 per single copy. Symbol = (PLC).

CPI Detailed Report. Contains the detailed Consumer Price Index data that are used to measure retail price changes, purchasing power of the consumer dollar, and inflation. Issued monthly. $15.00 a year domestic, $2.25 per single copy. $18.75 a year foreign, $2.85 per single copy. Symbol = (CPI).

Department of State Bulletin. Chronicles the development of foreign relations, reviews the operations of the State Department, records statements by the President and the Secretary of State, and reports special articles on international affairs. Issued monthly. $19.00 a year domestic, $3.25 per single copy. $23.75 a year foreign, $4.10 per single copy. Symbol = (DSB).

Dimensions NBS. Contains summaries of current research at the National Bureau of Standards. The articles are brief, with emphasis on the results of research, and are chosen on the basis of their scientific or technologic importance. Announces all publications by the Bureau. Issued monthly except January/February and July/August, which are combined issues. $11.00 a year domestic, $1.10 per single copy. $13.75 a year foreign, $1.40 per single copy. Symbol = (DNBS).

Economic Indicators. Gives pertinent economic information on prices, wages, production, business activity, purchasing power, credit, money, and Federal finance. Issued monthly. $15.00 a year domestic, $1.30 per single copy. $18.75 a year foreign, $1.65 per single copy. Symbol = (ECIN).

EPA Journal. Issued monthly except July/August and November/December, which are combined. $12.00 a year domestic, $1.20 per single copy. $15.00 a year foreign, $1.50 per single copy. Symbol = (EPAJ).

FAA General Aviation News. Helps flyers in general aviation become safer pilots. Valuable also to student pilots and ground personnel concerned with flight safety. Provides a monthly update on major rule changes and a brush-up on flight rules, maintenance, airworthiness, avionics, accident analysis, etc. Covers all aspects of general aviation including helicopters, balloons, gliders, and antiques, sport, and experimental aircraft. Issued bimonthly. $6.20 a year domestic, $1.10 per single copy. $7.75 a year foreign, $1.40 per single copy. Symbol=(FAN).

FDA Consumer. Provides colorful, plain-language articles and features on those Food and Drug Administration activities that have the greatest impact on consumers. Issued monthly except July/August and December/January, which are combined issues. $12.00 a year domestic, $2.25 per single copy. $15.00 a year foreign, $2.85 per single copy. Symbol=(FDAP).

Forum. Published by the Health Care Financing Administration, which manages the Medicare and Medicaid programs, Forum covers these areas every issue. But, because Medicare and Medicaid touch nearly every activity in the health field, the Forum also ranges wide over the entire spectrum of health care issues. Issued bimonthly. $7.50 a year domestic, $2.25 per single copy. $9.40 a year foreign, $2.85 per single copy. Symbol=(SRR).

GAO Review. Articles on accounting in general and in particular on accounting and the auditing activities of the General Accounting Office, its officials, and staff employees. Issued quarterly. $6.00 a year domestic, $1.50 per single copy. $7.50 a year foreign, $1.90 per single copy. Symbol=(GAOR).

HUD Newsletter. Reports on significant and newsworthy events and developments in housing, urban affairs, the mortgage market, credit, and related matters of particular interest to builders, planners, social welfare groups, and State and city officials. Published by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Issued Weekly. $23.00 a year domestic, $28.75 foreign. No single copies sold. Symbol=(HUDN).

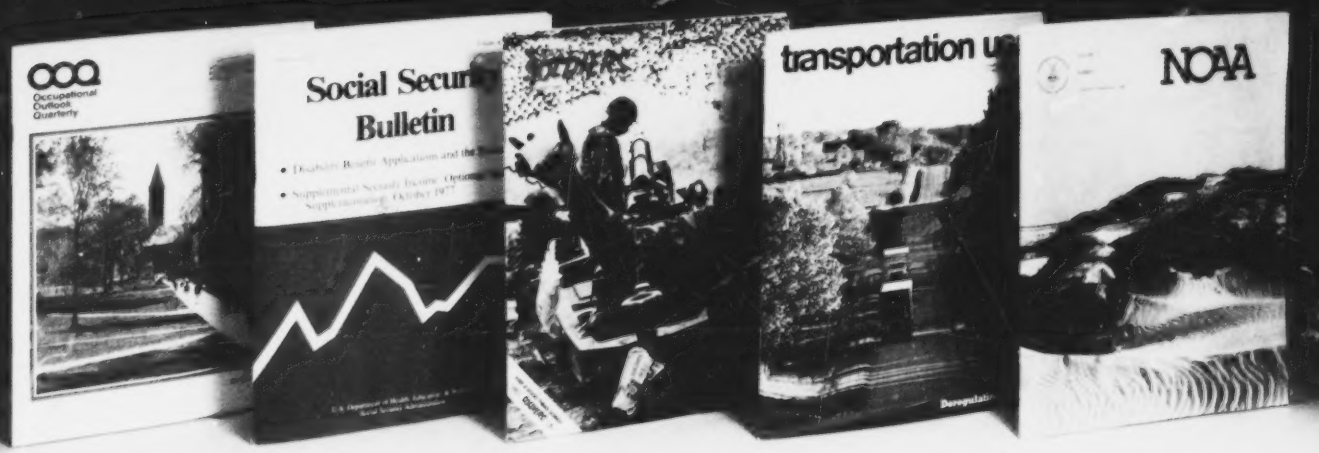
Internal Revenue Bulletin. Announces official Internal Revenue Service rulings, Treasury Decisions, Executive Orders, legislation, and court decisions pertaining to internal revenue matters. Subscription service covers bulletins issued during the calendar or fiscal year. Issued weekly. $55.00 a year domestic, $2.00 per single copy. $68.75 a year foreign, $2.50 per single copy. Symbol=(IRB).

Journal of the National Cancer Institute. Devoted to the publication of original observations and investigations in laboratory and clinical research in cancer. Issued monthly. $55.00 a year domestic, $4.60 per single copy. $68.75 a year foreign, $5.75 per single copy. Symbol=(JNC).

Monthly Energy Review. Presents a continuing record of events in the national and international energy network. Analyses and statistical data describe the overall energy picture, including energy consumption, production, imports, sales, and more. Issued monthly. $23.00 a year domestic, $2.50 per single copy. $28.75 a year foreign, $3.15 per single copy. Symbol=(MER).

Monthly Labor Review. Contains articles on employment, the labor force, wages, prices, productivity, unit labor costs, collective bargaining, worker satisfaction, social indicators, and labor developments abroad. Regular features include a review of developments in industrial relations, significant court decisions in labor cases, book reviews, and current labor statistics. Issued monthly. $18.00 a year domestic, $2.50 per single copy. $22.50 a year foreign, $3.15 per single copy. Symbol=(MLR).

Mosaic. This National Science Foundation journal is a medium of communication between individuals and groups directly affected by the Foundation, as well as Federal officials involved in scientific affairs, science writers, and others who share a concern for progress in science. Issued bimonthly. $10.00 a year domestic, $1.70 per single copy. $12.50 a year foreign, $2.15 per single copy. Symbol=(MOS).



NASA Activities. Outlines the general and scheduled activities of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Issued monthly. $14.50 a year domestic, $1.50 per single copy. $18.15 a year foreign, $1.90 per single copy. Symbol = (NACT).

NOAA. Published by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, this publication will acquaint readers with the policies and programs of the agency. Issued bimonthly. $9.50 a year domestic, $2.25 per single copy. $11.90 a year foreign, $2.85 per single copy. Symbol = (NOAA).

Occupational Outlook Quarterly. This periodical can help young people, employment planners, and guidance counselors keep abreast of current occupational and employment developments. Colorfully illustrated and written in non-technical language, this publication contains articles on new occupations, training opportunities, salary trends, career counseling programs, and the results of new studies from the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Issued quarterly. $6.00 a year domestic, $1.75 per single copy. $7.50 a year foreign, $2.20 per single copy. Symbol = (OOQ).

Official Summary of Security Transactions and Holdings. Made up of securities holdings figures showing owners, relationships to issues, amounts of securities bought or sold by each owner, their individual holdings at the end of the reported month, and types of securities. Issued monthly. $50.00 a year domestic, $4.20 per single copy. $62.50 a year foreign, $5.30 per single copy. Symbol = (OSST).

Our Public Lands. Presents news about the 460 million acres of land which make up the public domain, including information on how to buy public lands, where to hunt and fish, new camping sites, conservation highlights, Alaskan opportunities, and much more. Issued quarterly. $6.50 a year domestic, $1.70 per single copy. $8.25 a year foreign, $2.15 per single copy. Symbol = (OPL).

Social Security Bulletin. Reports current data on the operations of the Social Security Administration and the results of research and analysis pertinent to the social security program. Issued monthly. $16.00 a year domestic, $2.50 per single copy. $4.50 for Annual Statistical Supplement. $20.00 a year foreign, $3.15 per single copy, $5.65 for Annual Statistical Supplement. Symbol = (SSB).

Soldiers. Contains timely and informative articles on the policies, plans, operations, and technical developments of the Department of the Army and reserve components. Issued monthly. $17.00 a year domestic, $1.50 per single copy. $21.25 a year foreign, $1.80 per single copy. Symbol = (SOL).

Survey of Current Business. Discusses trends in industry, the current business situation, the outlook for the future, and other pertinent business topics. Issued monthly. $35.00 a year (priority mail) $22.00 a year (nonpriority mail) domestic, $1.90 per single copy. $27.50 a year foreign, $2.40 per single copy. Symbol = (SCUB).

Tables of Redemption Values for US Savings Bonds, Series E and EE. An annual subscription will include four issues—two of Series E and two of Series EE. Both series are mailed together biannually. $5.00 domestic, $2.00 for a single copy of Series E and $1.25 for a single copy of Series EE. $6.25 foreign, $2.50 for a single copy of Series E and $1.60 for a single copy of Series EE. Symbol = (TRVB).

Transportation USA. Published by the Department of Transportation to inform readers about current progress and problems in transportation and to stimulate interest and action in improving transportation in the future. Issued quarterly. $7.00 a year domestic, $1.75 per single copy. $8.75 a year foreign, $2.20 per single copy. Symbol = (TUSA).

Customer's Tele No. (Home/Office)

ORDER FORM

Superintendent of Documents
U.S. Government Printing Office
Washington, D.C. 20402

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY
Quantity	Charges
	Enclosed
	To be mailed
	Subscriptions
	Postage
	Foreign handling
	MMOB
	OPNR
	UPNS Discount
	Refund

VISA® MasterCard

Date ..... Your Order Number .....

Credit Card No.

Expiration Date Month/Year

Customer's Name and Address

Deposit Account Number

BEFORE USING THIS FORM, READ IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON REVERSE SIDE
PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE ALL INFORMATION ON THIS FORM.

Stock No.	Quantity	Symbol	Title	Unit Price	Total

TOTAL ENCLOSED $

SHIP TO: (if different from above)

ZIP

GPO Form 3430
(10-79)

To Order

1. Please use separate forms for ordering non-periodicals and subscriptions.
2. Type or print your complete name and address, your order number (if any), your Superintendent of Documents deposit account number (if applicable), your VISA or MasterCard number (if applicable), and date in proper places at the top of the form. If order is to be shipped to a third party, fill in address at bottom of form. Please include office/home telephone number.
3. When ordering non-periodicals, type or print the stock number (the number preceded by an "S/N" at the bottom of each synopsis), quantity, title, price, and total payment enclosed.
4. When ordering subscriptions, or single issues of subscriptions, type or print the quantity, symbol, title, unit price, and total payment enclosed. Allow 2–6 weeks plus mailing time for processing. All subscriptions are for one year unless otherwise noted. Subscribers will be notified in ample time to renew.
5. Mail this form to Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20402.
6. If shipment is incorrect, return the shipping documents for adjustment. DO NOT RETURN BOOKS UNTIL NOTIFIED TO DO SO. All claims must be submitted within six months.

General Information

Regulations require payment in advance of shipment of publications. Please make checks or money orders payable to the Superintendent of Documents. You may charge your order using your Superintendent of Documents deposit account, or your VISA or MasterCard account. Do not send cash or postage stamps. With the exception of our sales promotional material, no free publications are distributed by this Office.

With the exception of specifically priced publications and subscriptions, a discount of 25 percent is allowed on quantity purchases (100 or more copies of a single publication). The same discount applies to orders from a bookdealer (any quantity) when the publications are mailed to the dealer's normal place of business. No discount will be allowed when non-periodicals or subscriptions are mailed to a third party (unless in quantities of 100 or more per title).

Customers Outside of USA: International mailing regulations require special handling for which we charge an additional 25 percent of the total cost of your order. Remittance is required in advance of shipping by draft on a United States or Canadian bank, by UNESCO coupons, or by International Money Order, Canadian Money Order, or Caribbean Money Order made payable to the Superintendent of Documents. You may also use VISA, MasterCard, or Superintendent of Documents deposit accounts. These orders are mailed via surface mail unless funds are sent to cover airmail postage. Foreign currency or checks will not be accepted. All orders must be in English.

These symbols will be used to explain how your order was handled:

Circle ..... Indicates publication enclosed or mailed separately.

B ..... The publication is not available at this time but we have scheduled mailing for a later date. Charges have been included on your order.

I ..... This publication is not currently in stock. Please inquire as to the availability and price in 60 days. You may inquire and order by telephone (202–783–3238) using your VISA, MasterCard, or Superintendent of Documents deposit account. This will expedite shipment of your publications.

L ..... This publication is not currently sold by this Office. We suggest you contact your local library which can refer you to a Federal Depository Library in your area for further assistance.

S ..... Publication has been replaced by another with similar but more recent information and it will be included in your shipment.

T ..... Publication has been replaced by another with similar but more recent information. Because of a difference in price, we are noting new ordering information on your request.

Customer's Tele No. (Home/Office)

ORDER FORM

Superintendent of Documents
U.S. Government Printing Office
Washington, D.C. 20402

VISA® MasterCard

Date ..... Your Order Number .....

Credit Card No. | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

Expiration Date Month/Year | | | |

Customer's Name and Address

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY
Quantity	Charges
	Enclosed
	To be mailed
	Subscriptions
	Postage
	Foreign handling
	MMOB
	OPNR
	UPNS Discount
	Refund

Deposit Account Number

BEFORE USING THIS FORM, READ IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON REVERSE SIDE
PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE ALL INFORMATION ON THIS FORM.

Stock No.	Quantity	Symbol	Title	Unit Price	Total

TOTAL ENCLOSED $

SHIP TO: (if different from above)

ZIP

GPO Form 3430
(10-79)

To Order

1. Please use separate forms for ordering non-periodicals and subscriptions.
2. Type or print your complete name and address, your order number (if any), your Superintendent of Documents deposit account number (if applicable), your VISA or MasterCard number (if applicable), and date in proper places at the top of the form. If order is to be shipped to a third party, fill in address at bottom of form. Please include office/home telephone number.
3. When ordering non-periodicals, type or print the stock number (the number preceded by an "S/N" at the bottom of each synopsis), quantity, title, price, and total payment enclosed.
4. When ordering subscriptions, or single issues of subscriptions, type or print the quantity, symbol, title, unit price, and total payment enclosed. Allow 2–6 weeks plus mailing time for processing. All subscriptions are for one year unless otherwise noted. Subscribers will be notified in ample time to renew.
5. Mail this form to Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20402.
6. If shipment is incorrect, return the shipping documents for adjustment. DO NOT RETURN BOOKS UNTIL NOTIFIED TO DO SO. All claims must be submitted within six months.

General Information

Regulations require payment in advance of shipment of publications. Please make checks or money orders payable to the Superintendent of Documents. You may charge your order using your Superintendent of Documents deposit account, or your VISA or MasterCard account. Do not send cash or postage stamps. With the exception of our sales promotional material, no free publications are distributed by this Office.

With the exception of specifically priced publications and subscriptions, a discount of 25 percent is allowed on quantity purchases (100 or more copies of a single publication). The same discount applies to orders from a bookdealer (any quantity) when the publications are mailed to the dealer's normal place of business. No discount will be allowed when non-periodicals or subscriptions are mailed to a third party (unless in quantities of 100 or more per title).

Customers Outside of USA: International mailing regulations require special handling for which we charge an additional 25 percent of the total cost of your order. Remittance is required in advance of shipping by draft on a United States or Canadian bank, by UNESCO coupons, or by International Money Order, Canadian Money Order, or Caribbean Money Order made payable to the Superintendent of Documents. You may also use VISA, MasterCard, or Superintendent of Documents deposit accounts. These orders are mailed via surface mail unless funds are sent to cover airmail postage. Foreign currency or checks will not be accepted. All orders must be in English.

These symbols will be used to explain how your order was handled:

Circle ..... Indicates publication enclosed or mailed separately.

B ..... The publication is not available at this time but we have scheduled mailing for a later date. Charges have been included on your order.

I ..... This publication is not currently in stock. Please inquire as to the availability and price in 60 days. You may inquire and order by telephone (202–783–3238) using your VISA, MasterCard, or Superintendent of Documents deposit account. This will expedite shipment of your publications.

L ..... This publication is not currently sold by this Office. We suggest you contact your local library which can refer you to a Federal Depository Library in your area for further assistance.

S..... Publication has been replaced by another with similar but more recent information and it will be included in your shipment.

T ..... Publication has been replaced by another with similar but more recent information. Because of a difference in price, we are noting new ordering information on your request.

Customer's Tele No. (Home/Office)

ORDER FORM

Superintendent of Documents
U.S. Government Printing Office
Washington, D.C. 20402

VISA® MasterCard

Date ..... Your Order Number .....

Credit Card No.

Expiration Date Month/Year

Customer's Name and Address

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY

Quantity Charges

Enclosed
To be mailed
Subscriptions
Postage
Foreign handling
MMOB
OPNR
UPNS Discount
Refund

Deposit Account Number

BEFORE USING THIS FORM, READ IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON REVERSE SIDE
PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE ALL INFORMATION ON THIS FORM.

Stock No.	Quantity	Symbol	Title	Unit Price	Total

TOTAL ENCLOSED $

SHIP TO: (if different from above)

ZIP

GPO Form 3430
(10-79)

To Order

1. Please use separate forms for ordering non-periodicals and subscriptions.
2. Type or print your complete name and address, your order number (if any), your Superintendent of Documents deposit account number (if applicable), your VISA or MasterCard number (if applicable), and date in proper places at the top of the form. If order is to be shipped to a third party, fill in address at bottom of form. Please include office/home telephone number.
3. When ordering non-periodicals, type or print the stock number (the number preceded by an "S/N" at the bottom of each synopsis), quantity, title, price, and total payment enclosed.
4. When ordering subscriptions, or single issues of subscriptions, type or print the quantity, symbol, title, unit price, and total payment enclosed. Allow 2-6 weeks plus mailing time for processing. All subscriptions are for one year unless otherwise noted. Subscribers will be notified in ample time to renew.
5. Mail this form to Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20402.
6. If shipment is incorrect, return the shipping documents for adjustment. DO NOT RETURN BOOKS UNTIL NOTIFIED TO DO SO. All claims must be submitted within six months.

General Information

Regulations require payment in advance of shipment of publications. Please make checks or money orders payable to the Superintendent of Documents. You may charge your order using your Superintendent of Documents deposit account, or your VISA or MasterCard account. Do not send cash or postage stamps. With the exception of our sales promotional material, no free publications are distributed by this Office.

With the exception of specifically priced publications and subscriptions, a discount of 25 percent is allowed on quantity purchases (100 or more copies of a single publication). The same discount applies to orders from a bookdealer (any quantity) when the publications are mailed to the dealer's normal place of business. No discount will be allowed when non-periodicals or subscriptions are mailed to a third party (unless in quantities of 100 or more per title).

Customers Outside of USA: International mailing regulations require special handling for which we charge an additional 25 percent of the total cost of your order. Remittance is required in advance of shipping by draft on a United States or Canadian bank, by UNESCO coupons, or by International Money Order, Canadian Money Order, or Caribbean Money Order made payable to the Superintendent of Documents. You may also use VISA, MasterCard, or Superintendent of Documents deposit accounts. These orders are mailed via surface mail unless funds are sent to cover airmail postage. Foreign currency or checks will not be accepted. All orders must be in English.

These symbols will be used to explain how your order was handled:

Circle ..... Indicates publication enclosed or mailed separately.

B ..... The publication is not available at this time but we have scheduled mailing for a later date. Charges have been included on your order.

I ..... This publication is not currently in stock. Please inquire as to the availability and price in 60 days. You may inquire and order by telephone (202-783-3238) using your VISA, MasterCard, or Superintendent of Documents deposit account. This will expedite shipment of your publications.

L ..... This publication is not currently sold by this Office. We suggest you contact your local library which can refer you to a Federal Depository Library in your area for further assistance.

S..... Publication has been replaced by another with similar but more recent information and it will be included in your shipment.

T ..... Publication has been replaced by another with similar but more recent information. Because of a difference in price, we are noting new ordering information on your request.

Customer's Tele No. (Home/Office)

ORDER FORM

Superintendent of Documents
U.S. Government Printing Office
Washington, D.C. 20402

VISA® MasterCard

Date ..... Your Order Number .....

Credit Card No.

Expiration Date Month/Year

Customer's Name and Address

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY
Quantity	Charges
	Enclosed
	To be mailed
	Subscriptions
	Postage
	Foreign handling
	MMOB
	OPNR
	UPNS Discount
	Refund

Deposit Account Number

BEFORE USING THIS FORM, READ IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON REVERSE SIDE
PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE ALL INFORMATION ON THIS FORM.

Stock No.	Quantity	Symbol	Title	Unit Price	Total

TOTAL ENCLOSED $

SHIP TO: (if different from above)

ZIP

GPO Form 3430
(10-79)

To Order

1. Please use separate forms for ordering non-periodicals and subscriptions.
2. Type or print your complete name and address, your order number (if any), your Superintendent of Documents deposit account number (if applicable), your VISA or MasterCard number (if applicable), and date in proper places at the top of the form. If order is to be shipped to a third party, fill in address at bottom of form. Please include office/home telephone number.
3. When ordering non-periodicals, type or print the stock number (the number preceded by an "S/N" at the bottom of each synopsis), quantity, title, price, and total payment enclosed.
4. When ordering subscriptions, or single issues of subscriptions, type or print the quantity, symbol, title, unit price, and total payment enclosed. Allow 2–6 weeks plus mailing time for processing. All subscriptions are for one year unless otherwise noted. Subscribers will be notified in ample time to renew.
5. Mail this form to Superintendent of Documents, Washington, DC 20402.
6. If shipment is incorrect, return the shipping documents for adjustment. DO NOT RETURN BOOKS UNTIL NOTIFIED TO DO SO. All claims must be submitted within six months.

General Information

Regulations require payment in advance of shipment of publications. Please make checks or money orders payable to the Superintendent of Documents. You may charge your order using your Superintendent of Documents deposit account, or your VISA or MasterCard account. Do not send cash or postage stamps. With the exception of our sales promotional material, no free publications are distributed by this Office.

With the exception of specifically priced publications and subscriptions, a discount of 25 percent is allowed on quantity purchases (100 or more copies of a single publication). The same discount applies to orders from a bookdealer (any quantity) when the publications are mailed to the dealer's normal place of business. No discount will be allowed when non-periodicals or subscriptions are mailed to a third party (unless in quantities of 100 or more per title).

Customers Outside of USA: International mailing regulations require special handling for which we charge an additional 25 percent of the total cost of your order. Remittance is required in advance of shipping by draft on a United States or Canadian bank, by UNESCO coupons, or by International Money Order, Canadian Money Order, or Caribbean Money Order made payable to the Superintendent of Documents. You may also use VISA, MasterCard, or Superintendent of Documents deposit accounts. These orders are mailed via surface mail unless funds are sent to cover airmail postage. Foreign currency or checks will not be accepted. All orders must be in English.

These symbols will be used to explain how your order was handled:

Circle ..... Indicates publication enclosed or mailed separately.

B ..... The publication is not available at this time but we have scheduled mailing for a later date. Charges have been included on your order.

I ..... This publication is not currently in stock. Please inquire as to the availability and price in 60 days. You may inquire and order by telephone (202–783–3238) using your VISA, MasterCard, or Superintendent of Documents deposit account. This will expedite shipment of your publications.

L ..... This publication is not currently sold by this Office. We suggest you contact your local library which can refer you to a Federal Depository Library in your area for further assistance.

S..... Publication has been replaced by another with similar but more recent information and it will be included in your shipment.

T ..... Publication has been replaced by another with similar but more recent information. Because of a difference in price, we are noting new ordering information on your request.

best copy available

Hobbies and Leisure Activities
Camping, hiking, fishing, boating, backpacking, exploring...we have publications to help you get the most out of your spare time.
National Park Sys
1776
NATIONAL PARK SERVICE GUIDE TO THE HISTORIC PL OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION back-country travel in the national camping in the national park system
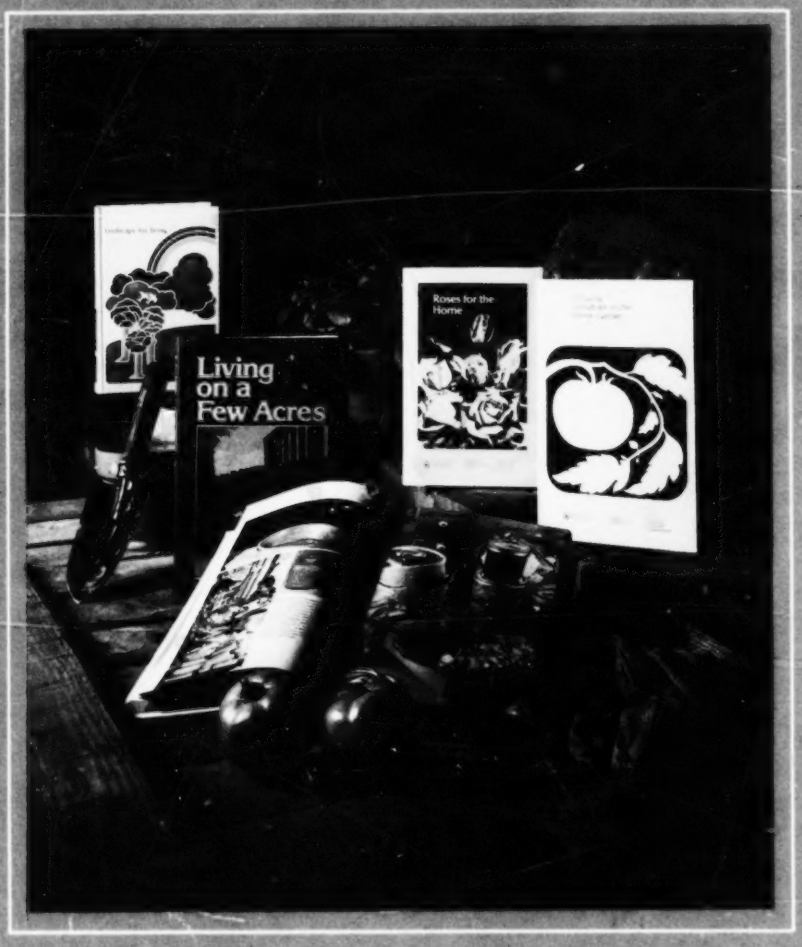
Many-storied Mountains
The Life of Glacier National Park

Superintendent of Documents
US Government Printing Office
Washington, DC 20402

Official Business

Postage and Fees Paid
US Government Printing Office
377
Printed Matter



To put your green thumb in action, see our selection of great gardening books on page 13.

These are just a few of the many Government publications for sale by the Superintendent of Documents.